The ancestry of the Jermains, as one branch of the American line of Jordans has been called, since the assumption of the name by John Jermain, born Jordan, of Sag Harbor, N.Y., is an ancient and proud French family of mark in the early history of Southern France and Western France, successively. In fact, if the unsatisfiable genealogists wishes they can carry the line, old as it is in France, even further back to the old Italian stockand spelling, for 'Jordan', of old Jourdain and Jourdaine, is simply Jourdanie, in older Languedoc (Southeastern France) usage, and occasionally in Southern Languedoc it is called so today; and originally it means the immigration into Languedoc of the Giordani family-line

from Italy. -- E.Irenaeus Stevenson, New York, N.Y.,1897

FRENCH ANCESTRY OF THE JERMAIN(JORDAN) FAMILY

Statement translated from the original French memoranda and notes , transcribed and prepared in France by E.Irenaeus Stevenson,1897.

The story of the Jordans, or to call them as they once were called and still are called in France,"Jourdans" and "Jourdaines", begins in the antique and richly historic old city of Toulouse, the "Tolosa" of Roman Days of dominion over Gaul, and later the capital of Languedoc, especially as an independent country, often at variance with the sovereign, practically a royal territory and capital of itself. The long line of the Counts of Toulouse is as romantic a chronicle as chivalry affords. The active part taken in the Crusades by the Counts of Toulouse,at one period, is merely a single chapter of their bustling history,and they preserved their autonomy to all purposes, until a late date.

X to XIII CENTURIES

Count Jourdan de Toulouse (also called Count "Alphonse Jourdan de Toulouse" and also "Alphonse I of Toulouse") was of Italian descent, more remotely connected with the Giordani. He was in power in Toulouse in 1112, or among the latter group of Toulouse's sovereigns; and succeeded by Raymond V. VI, and VII., and to adventurous Simon de Montfort (1212 - 18). From the line of Count Jourdan de Toulouse was descended legitimately a branch of the Jordan blood. This branch presently transferred itself to Western France and to the seacoast, and thus became the Jourdan family-- at some date, probably earlier than the XIII century, identified with the City of La Rochelle, then a thriving and precious seaport and center, a strongly Protestant community, and destined to play such a tragic part in France's religious wars.

XIII to XV CENTURIES

In the year 1455, we find the Jourdans fully identified with the city of La Rochelle. Pierre Jourdan (whom we will call Pierre Jourdan I) is mayor of La Rochelle. He died sometime after the year named. We have no particulars of his marriage, or of his family, but there must have been a large descent from him.

XVI CENTURY

Pierre Jourdan II, of La Rochelle, is co-elected mayor of La Rochelle, in 1511-1523. He was known as the lord of the estate of Bonnomie. He married a lady of LaRochelle of high distinction, named Francoise Nicolas. Their son was Pierre Jourdan III, who will presently be spoken of as being baptised, adopting the Reformed faith. Up to that time the Jourdan family doubtless had been Roman Catholic.

Francois Jourdan (1) Of the same generation with Pierre (3) also was of LaRochelle. He married Marguerite Breton. A son is mentioned as theirs, David Jourdain (2) who was baptised into the Reformed church in 1569. The two men probably were cousins. Other descendants of their father Francois not stated.

Contemporary with the preceding was René Jourdan, of La Rochelle in 1517, a surgeon. We have no particulars of his marriage, or children; but a descendant was another David Jourdan, to be called David Jourdan (2), who was a "conseillure du roy", a "counseller" to " to King Louis XV., in 1630, and died at Nantes in August 1671, as will be noted later.

A further advance, a generation, brings us to the following Jourdans, all of La Rochelle, or of the old city's environs:

Francois Jourdan, ecuyer (esquire). He wedded Helene de Goulars, ca 1570 A daughter, Marie Jourdan is named. Other offspring and data not given.

Pierre Jourdan 3, named above, and approximately of the same generation. He, too, is of La Rochelle, the son of Pierre Jourdan 2, and Francois Nicolas, who was one of the most honored La Rochelle families. He (Pierre 3) is baptised as a "Reformed", in January 1569. We have no date of his marriage or family.

David Jourdan, also referred to above, was of this group, a La Rochellais, the son of Francois Jourdan (1), and Marguerite Breton. David also was baptised as a "Reformed", in January 1569, probably at the same time as his near relative Pierre (3).

It is noteworthy that these converts to Reformation principles were "presented" for the rite by a godfather and godmother of high nobility, Charles Poupart, the Sieur de Pona, a gentleman who had accompanied Queen Marguerite of Navarre, his sovereign, to La Rochelle ; and the Lady Jeanne du Fay, was the marraine. Both baptized were adult.

Réené Jourdan, was a lady of the group of Jordans of this time, a cousin, or near relative. She became the wife of the SieurLouis de Buisson, and they had a son known as Pierre (de Buisson)de Ponlebon, ecuyer, and also as Sieur de Pons, later

Marie Jourdan (1) daughter of Francois Jourdan(2), and Helene de Goulard named. She married in October, 1592, apparently at La Rochelle, her relative (cousin?) Aime de Goulard, Chevalier and Sieur de Bois-Pourreau, an estate near Beauvais. No further data is at hand.

XVII CENTURY (The Emigration).

Jean Jourdan(1) was of La Rochelle, and was known as the Sieur de Mealle, of the vicinity. He married Marie Guy. It would seem that he died a young man, for his wife married again, and her husband, a relative, was the same Sieur Pierre de Ponlebon et du Pons, mentioned above, the son of Rene Jourdain and the Sieur Louis Buisson. We have no other data.

Catherine Jourdain(1) of La Rochelle , as to whom no other data, earlier than 1618, married in that year the Sieur Francois Péguinier, or Peguinie, ecuyer and lord of the estate of Martiniere. Their family is not recorded.

Ozçe' Jourdain (Ozcé) (1) of La Rochelle, married in 16--, Lucrèce Souvestre. Their children include two sons. One of them is of much importance to all Americans interested in the family, for it was he, Ozsçé, or Ozçé Jourdain (2), who at an advanced age, emigrated to the Huguenot colony at Westchester, (N.Y.) in or about the year 1685, taking all or many of his adult family with him, as will be shown later, an episode like so many more inspired by the unwise Revocation of the Edict of Nantes. The wife of this emigrating son of Ozçé was Elizabeth Coudres. The brother of Ozcé (2) was Francois Ozçé Jourdain, who may be called, Francois (3); but he did not leave France with his brother, but "conformed", i.e., became a Roman Catholic, and was a soldier in the army of Marechal Luxembourg, in 16--.

Evidently contemporary with these is the mysterious Jean-Barnabe Jourdain of La Rochelle, or Angers, whose parentage is obscure, with other lost data; but who seems to have been a Catholic and something of a gadfly in the family. We do not know of his age, marriage, etcs., but we discover that he was "embroiled with his relative Ozcé J.(2), above named, and was thereby instrumental in the exile and the transplanting of the Jourdan line to the New World. where, at least, family quarrels and religious percecution could not follow them. Possibly this Jean-Barnabe Jourdan was of the earlier generation than Ozcé (2) his uncle, and in line with Ozcé Jourdan(1). If he were of the latter-named group he must have been an old man.

David Jourdan (2) of La Rochelle, and perhaps also of Paris. No personal data other than this descent from René Jourdan, the surgeon named, and that he was named a "counsellor" to the king,(Louis XV.) ,either as a special or general advisor,in 1630. He probably was a Catholic. He died at Nantes in August 1671.

It may be said here that it is not ascertained exactly where in the city of La Rochelle was situated the chief mansion of the old family; or if it is represented by any actual remains today. LaRochelle's severe war experiences , especially under Richelieu's siege, destroyed many of the antique homes, rich as is the town now in its old landmarks. We can be fairly sure that the Hotel Jourdan was in what is today the fine old Rue de Palais, or in the RueChaudvier; not unlikly near the "Grosse Horloge" gate, with its historic clock. Often must the Jourdans have seen and admired and walked among these noble relics of La Rochellés early glory still in fine repair and usefulness. Its cathedral, its Hotel de Ville, among France's first structures of its sort; the Port Towers

All so imposing now and La Rochelle's pride.

Ozcé, or Ozsçé, the French equivalent of "Hossa" in either form, Jourdan (2) is now met; the Jourdan to bear his name across the sea. He was, as had been said, the son of Ozcé Jourdan (1) and Lucrèce Souvestre. He married Elizabeth Coudres in October 1627. The couple had 12 children, among them Jean (2), Francois (4), Pierre (4), Catherine (2), Josepha, and Marie (2). In 1685, when at an advanced age, past sixty, and several of his children married and with families of their own, beyond doubt, there occurred the ill-advised Revocation of the Edict of Nantes. By that rash measure France lost thousands of her most valuable Protestant citizens, almost to the depopulation of many important cities, through the flight of the self-exiled to foreign coasts.

Among such fugitives was Ozcé Jourdan, despite his years. He sailed for Scotland in or about 1685, and members of his family fled with him. Curious is the fact that he was embroiled with his kinsman, Jean-Barnabe Jourdan, not at all improbable, on religious grounds; and the latter seems to have had much to do with the expatriation. The wife and mother, Elizabeth Coudres, is not named as a co-fugitive, and seems to have died before those evil days.

The refugess went first to Glasgow, and to Edinburgh, either because the ship's course left them no choice, or on ae count of their own plans. This halting place accounts for the tradition occasionally heard before now in the American family that the"Jourdan" ("Jermain") family came originally from Scotland, and were Scotch,or English,by descent.

They did not remain long in Scotland,however,presently Ozcé Jourdan and his family were crossing the ocean, bound for their natural asylum,indeed. The Huguenot emigration of many old neighbors and friends already had established a settlement in Westchester county,N.Y., on the fair shores of Long Island Sound, named New Rochelle,in affectionate remembrance of their beloved town at home. There were the Jays, the Demorests, the De Laney line and scores of others. In our later day a thriving,yet quiet, suburb of New York city, and a summer resort of wealth less than fifty minutes from the metropolis, it was well removed from Mahhattan in 1685. There was ample room for all new comers.

After the arrival at New Rochelle, Westchester county, of old Ozcé Jourdan and his sons and daughters, as many as came, we know of them only that they prospered and increased, identified with the village and county. A private collection of letters to France (Gayarre, Toulouse) from New Rochelle residents of rather late date, speaks of Ozcé Jourdan and of his children as married and become land-proprietors. They must have acquired wealth. The son of Jean (3)probably succeeded to the parental estate, or to his share. The name"Jourdan" was anglicised and became "Jordan". The baptismal pre-names

"Jean", "Francois","Pierre" , and so on, became John, Francis, Francis, or Frank, and Peter. The name "Marie" has survived, also,even to this day, as Maria,or Mary, and,by family custom, even as Marie.

So the family became rooted in America and known as "Jordan", no longer Jourdan,or Jourdaine,the French family became an American one.

THE FAMILY IN AMERICA

Persuing its history , we have for several decades after this but meagre knowledge . John Jourdan , or Jordan(1) the son of Ozcé Jourdan, and himself known awhile as "Jean", (3),who came to New Rochelle with his father and the others, had married in France or else , married presently in Westchester county, and a curious legend in the family, strongly confirmed by Mr.Alanson Jermain, of Long Island, has made the wife of Jewish race. John Jordan(1), succeeded to a considerable estate. His son, and there may have been other children, was John Jordan (2).

John Jordan (2) , as we may do well to call the son, dropping further reference to his French name and progenitors, continued to live in Westchester county; and he doubtless owned a part of the sstate that his grandfather, old Ozcé Jourdan had owned . He married a Mary Ann Daniels, an English lady of Dutch descent, who was born in New York in 1726, and a tradition in the family made her a devoted mother and the heroine of a curious expedition to find her son John, long after a family separation, caused by the Revolutionary war. had interrupted their intercourse. She died in St.John, New Brunswick, in 1826, at the home of her son Gilbert Jordan.

Their son, with those of other brothers and sisters whose names we know, was John Jordon (3), also of Westchester county. He was before long to be known by another name, when Revolutionary troubles or other reasons caused him to change his home and surname and to become known in Long Island as John Jermain (1). His relatives,as noted in the records attached, were James, Francis,Samuel, who died young, Gilbert and Sarah.

Concluding ,therefore, reference to the Jourdans in France and continuing the record of the family in the XVII Century, when the emigration occured under Ozcé(2) no particulars are given of the family circles left in France. Nothing further is said as to the family of Francois Ozcé Jourdan, of the army of Marechal Luxembourg, nor have we data of the Jourdan lines at Nantes, Angers,Saintes, Bordeaux, Beauvais, and other points. In Toulouse,however, and at Tarbes the Jourdan name and line was represented approximately at this epoch by the Sieur Louis Jourdainie, and at least two of his descendants, viz., Francois and Justin Jourdaine ,or Jourdan. Both of these later were "in religion" and Justin died an acclesiastic at Tarbes, about 1708.

XVIII CENTURY

Of the line of Jourdan at La Rochelle during the XVIII

Century particulars are to be added, to be furnished shortly by the present La Rochelle representatives of the family (1897) . It continued to be largely represented in the place for several generations , and then diminished.

Of the line of Jourdan at Toulouse and at Tarbes, occurred early in the Eighteenth Century the decease of its only (particularized and male) members, the two religionists, Francois Jourdan (5) and Justin Jourdan,named. The latter died at Tarbes ca. 1708, as noted.

As the XVIII Century concluded and the tremendous upheaval of the Revolution shook the French provinces, to be followed by the career of Napoleon, two representatives of the Jourdan family became historically eminent. One of them was so in an odious degree; the notorious Mathieu Jouves-Jourdain, of the National Guard, who was connected with the Meridional branch of the family. In authority first at Avignon and then at Paris, he is remembered and execrated in our histories, wherever the Revolution is pictured, for his cruel and indeed atrocious butcheries and shocking executions; under the nick-name of"Jourdan Coupe-Tete",or"Jourdan the head-chopper." His hundreds of victims were avenged by his death under the Guillotine, in Paris, 1794.

But quite a different military representative of the Jourdans, at this relatively recent date, and greater, as well as better of fame,is the Marshal of France under Napoleon

Jean Baptiste Jourdan (1726-1833), eminent as an admirable soldier and at certain periods of the Napoleonic campaign, the right-hand man of Bonaparte. He was also, earlier, in the active service of the revolting American colonies, and fought in the American Revolution in what was known as the "Auxerre regiment." He was a brave and brilliant man, but, unfortunately, his life was a stormy one, and it was clouded by what he felt to be Napoleon's injustice to him. He was not only a Marshal, but a General of the armies of the Sambre-et-Meuse division, Governor of Grenoble; Acting Governor of the Invalides, at Paris, and much else, at various times. A striking figure in the Napoleonic chapter, he died in 1833, and is buried in all honor in the Invalides.

XIX CENTURY

The data as to the contemporary and recent Jourdan line at various localities, La Rochelle, Nantes, Angers, and so on, are not tabulated, or completed at this writing but are to be recorded presently.

In La Rochelle, a near connection of the Marshal Jean-Baptiste Jourdan, named above, was long resident and distinguished, the late Jean-Baptist Jourdan, Judge of Instruction in the Civil Tribunal of La Rochelle. He was born at LaRochelle, January 20, 1811, and died aged sixty, January 31, 1871. M. Jourdan was a magistrate of great value and a learned historian and devoted to La Rochelle genealogies. His notes have been drawn from, with others, elsewhere in this record. He did not marry, and the surviving relatives of the Jourdan line in La Rochelle, a much lessened stock since several generations, were his brother, M. Jules Jourdan, and his sister, Mlle. M. Jourdan. Mlle. Jourdan married in 187-, Captain Volmerange, of La Rochelle, and it is to their quiet household in the city of their ancestors that the writer of these notes had the pleasure of communicating in 1897 the American story of their family, as well as meeting them. The family had no knowledge of the after-history of the Jourdans who crossed the Atlantic in exile in the Seventeenth century, nor of old Ozcé Jourdan's posterity in the United States.

CAPTAIN JOSEPH PARSONS and
NANCY JORDAN PARSONS

Joseph Parsons was born in Anson County in 1760. He was a son of Samuel Parsons, b. 1740, a recipient of a grant of one thousand acres in what is now Montgomery and Anson counties. Samuel's first wife is unknown to me, but he married a second time, a widow, Harriett Elkins.

Joseph entered the N. C. Militia in 1776 and served in the following capacities:

In 1776 he served two months as a Private under General Gates, Col. Love and Captain Robinson.

In 1780 he served two months and 15 days as a Private under Captain Crump.

In 1781 he served indeterminate term under Captain Hogan as a Lieutenant.

In 1781, three months as a Captain under General Wade. Also under Colonel Lyttle and Major Douglas.

He was engaged in the Battle of Camden, a battle on Little River, Montgomery County, N.C., plus a battle at Drowning Creek, N.C. He later received a pension and after his death, his widow Nancy Parsons drew a widow's pension. Captain Robinson's given name was Cornelius. Joseph's tenure under Captain Robinson was against the Cherokee Indians in Colonel David Love's Regiment. In June, 1780 he served against the Tories with Capt. J. Crump. Sometime after this he joined General Gates' Army and was in the Battle of Camden. In July or August of 1780, he was a Lieutenant under Captain Shaddrack Hogan, but mostly employed collecting beef cattle for General Harrington's troops stationed on the Pee Dee River near Cheraw, S.C..

In October, 1781, he was commissioned a Captain by General Thomas Wade to raise thirty men to serve on horse for three months. With these, he joined General Wade and marched on Beatty's Bridge, on Drowning Creek, where a battle was fought with the British and the Tories. In 1782 he served variously with Captain Raiford, Colonel Lyttle, Major Douglas and Captain John Rapps Companies. Also, in this year, he was appointed by General Rutherford to raise Militia for Guard duty. After the war he came back to Montgomery County and married Nancy Jordan, in 1790. Their children were: Nancy Parsons; Mary Ann Parsons; Sarah Parsons; Pallie Parsons; James Hillman Parsons and Dianna (Dicy) Parsons. Dicy married James Ozier Bruton, Wadeville, N.C. Joseph is buried on a gravel road about 1 mile west of Wadeville. His grave is marked, the marker provided by the DAR.

Family legend has the information that Joseph was the first Sherrif of Montgomery and the first Justice of the Peace. He performed his Father, Samuel's second marriage to the "Widow" Harriett Elkins. Samuel and Harriett had a son, James Parsons. It is believed that he had a brother named Thomas Parsons.

Dicy Parsons was my Great, Great, Great Grandmother on my Grandmother Bruton's side. Her Mother was Elizabeth Robinson Williams; her mother was Nancy Bruton Robinson; her mother was Dianna (Dicy) Parsons Bruton. Thus, Joseph Parsons was my Great Great, Great, Great Grandfather.

Freeneville, Meriwether Coty, Ga
1st Febry 1837.

Dear Sir

I enclose you herewith the claim of Frances Jordan, a poor widow with eight small children, for a pittance of Pension due her deceased husband Charles Jordan. –

The subject being dead the Department would impose, if indispensably required, an impossibility to give a minute detail history of service. – In the case here presented there can be no doubt of the patriotism & service of the applicant. – Look yourself at the Discharge given by Douglas in 1785 annexed. – I have thought you might yourself have known him about Augusta. Should he have survived to any suitable period after the Revolution. – If so, & you will certify or explain the same to the Department I have thought it would be useful & important to a correct & just decision of the claim. –

The time runs only from 4th March 1831 up to the 31st Aug. 1832 the time of his death, & then to end forever, surely if the truth of service is recognized the exactness of detail, when impossible, may be liberally & clearly superseded.

You are nearly leaving Washington again. At your leisure, some long night towards the 4th of March give me a line on the prospects of the past, present & future. — I shall be happy to hear from you at any & all times. — I hope you will not close the Jefferson thus recognizing the independence of Texas. — I consider this the first practical feature in the movements of Abolition the hingeing interest between the North & South upon this subject. — If there is ever destined to be a crisis from the redundancy of negro population in the South & West then Texas presents the great drain for this evil, & its acquisition will remove the theatre of the warfare from amongst us, at least farther from us, probably throw it there if ever to occur. — Wise men think so, & you I believe amongst the number think there is danger, at least that its demon aspect should be met at the threshold. For myself I have not thought there was much danger, but I have

Declaration,

In order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832.

State of Georgia } On this 30th day of January 1837 —
Meriwether County. } — Personally appeared in open Court, before the Inferior Court now sitting, Frances Jordan widow of Charles Jordan deceased, a resident of the County of Meriwether & State of Georgia, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on her oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7, 1832, in her behalf as the surviving widow of said deceased at the time of his death, who was a Revolutionary Pensioner of right of the United States at the time of his death & a resident of said County & State. —

1st — That said Charles Jordan was born in one of the Northern States, which one is not known, in the month of June 1764. —

2nd — That said Charles Jordan, deceased, had a record of his age in an old Bible kept by his father, which during the Revolution was worn out & lost in the various changes & accidents of time & place, when & where is not known. —

3rd — When called into service said Charles Jordan deceased resided in Wilkes County State of Georgia. — It is believed that during the Revolution he resided at different periods in that part of Wilkes County afterwards subdivided into Columbia & Lincoln counties but principally in the latter, where he permanently resided from the year 1790 to 1806, inclusive. — The years 1807 & 1808 he resided in Jackson County. From 1809 to 1816 inclusive he resided in Morgan County. From thence he removed to Monroe County in the State of Alabama where he resided nine years near the Burnt corn Spring up to & including the year 1825. — From thence removed back to Georgia into Upson County there he resided the years 1826 & 1827. — From thence he removed & resided in Meriwether County from the Spring of 1828 up to the time of his death on the 31st day of August 1832. He was a pioneer frontiersman & usually attended to cattle stock with merely a farm house. —

1st Service. — Said Charles Jordan deceased was called into service, residence Wilkes County State of Georgia, sometime during the year 1780, probably the earlier part of that year. — He served two months under Captain John Hill. — He was a volunteer private militia infantry, service under State authority, recognized & required by the United States. — The service was performed scouting & reconnoitering on the frontiers of the State, building & sustaining Forts, & protecting the inhabitants in regular military duty. — The exact time of the year is not known, nor can a detailed minute history of the service be given. He rendezvoused on Little river, marched & defended the upper inhabitants & forts of the State & was honorably discharged on his return march into Wilkes county by Captain Hill by written discharge which he lost. — Service 2 mos. —

2nd Service. — He was called into service, residence Wilkes County State of Georgia, this was in the year 1780, the latter part, he served two months November & December of that year. — His captain was Samuel Harper, his Colonel John Dooly who was afterwards killed by the Tories. — He was a volunteer private militia infantry acting under State authority & general recognition of the United States. He rendezvoused near the mouth of Little River & marched into the upper part of the State & into South Carolina reconnoitering & scouting, sustaining the Forts, protecting the country & checking the depredations & threatened hostilities of the Creek Indians & the occasional incursions of the Cherokees. He was honorably discharged by written discharge of Captain Harper after his return march home in Wilkes County, which discharge was long since lost. At that time Georgia & Carolina were measurably in possession of the British from their control at Augusta & Charleston, & expeditions were entirely on the defensive & cautiously engaged in & month with an agt. to protect the frontier settlements from Tory fiends & Indian massacre. — There were more indeed & more important than danger & injury from the British enemy by whom they were encouraged, sometimes assisted & always communicated with from those British posts. — Service 2nd —

3rd Service. — He served in the two Sieges of Augusta Georgia, & in the Siege of Ninety Six in the State of South Carolina. In these several tours, duties & Sieges & the operations connected therewith he served as a Volunteer private militia Infantry under the Authority of the States of Georgia & South Carolina required & recognized by the United States. — The services in the whole, or in each separately, can not be described in detail. — In all these Sieges duties & tours he served not less than nine months actual services. — They might not have been specially continuous & connected, but were really rendered with little interval, & the last Siege of Augusta & the Siege of Ninety Six are believed to have been rendered without a lapse of duty. — The particular time of these Sieges is not known but it is believed that he rendered two months service in the first Siege of Augusta, & four months in the last, the first occurring in the early part of the year 1781 & the last in the latter part of that year or in 1782; — the Siege of Ninety Six in the middle of the year 1781 in which he served three months. — In all these tours he entered service from his residence Wilkes County Georgia. — In the first Siege of Augusta he rendezvoused on Little river Wilkes County, in the second at Kiokee creek now Columbia County thirty miles above Augusta in both of which tours & Sieges his captain was George Dent, his Colonel Elijah Clark acting as Gen.l in command. — In the second Siege of Augusta General Lee was the principal commander,

His father of the same name as himself Charles Jordan, was with him at the second Siege of Augusta & was killed there by a shot in the stomach in the storm on Brown & Grayson's Fort - Col. Brown was the principal commander on the part of the British Maj. Eaton & Col. Dickens were officers on the American side at one or both Sieges of Augusta. - In the tour of duty performed at Ninety Six, South Carolina he rendezvoused at Mike's creek, Columbia County now, thirty miles above Augusta & marched through Richmond County & through Edgefield district South Carolina to Ninety Six, entered from his residence Wilkes County Georgia his captain George Dooly, his Colonel or General Elijah Clark; the Siege commanded by General Nathaniel Greene in person, General Lee also in command assisted by his Colonel or General Elijah Clark. - Served in this campaign three months including going & returning, was in the Siege of Ninety Six in the attack & repulse of the Americans, with whom he retreated & remained until out of danger up the Saluda river. - In all these three Sieges he served & fought throughout their whole operations.

He was in, served & fought at the first Siege, attack, & repulse at Augusta. -

He was in, served & fought at the second Siege, storm & capture of Augusta. -

He was in, served & fought at the Siege of Ninety Six & the attack & repulse of the Americans at that place. -

In all these several tours of duty he was honorably discharged after his return home into Wilkes County Georgia by his captain George Dooly by written discharges which have been long since lost or destroyed. - Service 9 mos

4th Service. — He entered service, residing in Wilkes County State of Georgia as a volunteer private militia infantry, rendezvoused on Little river, marched & scouted through the frontiers of Georgia & South Carolina defending the inhabitants against the Creek & Cherokee Indians. — This service was performed in the year 1782, his captain was Samuel Harper, his colonel or general Elijah Clark, it consisted in two tours of duty of twenty days each, & in one of which his detachment was accompanied by General Pickens of South Carolina in joint command & when he was in several inconsiderable skirmishes with the Indians & Tories. These campaigns were in the year 1782. — He was honorably discharged from both tours by his captain Samuel Harper after his return into Wilkes by written discharge which has long since been lost or destroyed. — Service 3 yrs & 10 days

And the said Frances Jordan doth on her oath make the further declaration, that there is no Clergyman, nor was at the time of the death of the said Charles Jordan, deceased, resident in his neighborhood or in "immediate vicinity" who can testify from their acquaintance with him, as to his age & Revolutionary reputation." — There was indeed no Clergyman resident near the nearest were strangers in a new country. —

And the said Frances Jordan doth on her oath make the further declaration, that the forgoing narrative comprises the substance & full an account of the material services rendered by her deceased husband Charles Jordan as can now be set forth, declare & claimed. — It is taken from his death bed statements made to Judge Wiley B. Cobb on the 28th August 1832 three days before his death, corroborated by repeated verbal communications made to me before in his life time, & cotemporaneously by others conversing with him in my presence. —

And the said Frances Jordan doth on her oath make the further declaration, that said Charles Jordan, deceased, in the time set forth in the forgoing Declaration served with an embodied corps called into service by competent authority, — that he was in the field or in garrison; — for the time during which the service was performed, he was not employed in any civil pursuit." —

And the said Frances Jordan, applicant, "being duly sworn, deposeth & saith, that, by reason of old age & the consequent loss of memory on the part of the said Charles Jordan, deceased, at & before his death, she can not swear positively as to the precise length of his service; — but, according to the best of her recollection & knowledge, (his) & service not less than the periods mentioned below, & in the following grades:" —

For — 1 year — 1 month — & 10 days he served as a Private Volunteer in the Infantry, & for which service he claims a pension." —

And the said Frances Jordan doth on her oath make the further declaration, that the accompanying annexed ancient paper, Discharge, was found amongst the papers of said deceased which was given to him individually & identically as it purports. — It is specified as underneath proof of his service at the Siege of Augusta, & specially, & the implied recognition of his further service, here claimed, in the expression of having done duty "on all occasions." — & that she has no further documentary evidence, & that she knows of no person whose testimony she can procure, who can testify to his service, at least in detail, Alexander Smith whose statement follows below knowing him however partially during the Revolution, knew him to have been a Whig, & recollects seeing him in service at the Siege of Augusta. Some other ancient papers are held, but are either yellow & illegible, or of later date. —

She hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity, except the present, & declares that her name is not on the Pension Roll of the Agency of any State. — on this third day of october eighteen hundred & forty six personally appeared before the honorable the judge of the superior court held in & for the county of Washington aforesaid. Winefred Jordan a resident of said county aged eighty four years. who being first duly sworn according to law, doth upon her oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the act of congress passed the seventh day of July in the year 1838 intitled an act granting half pay & pensions to certain widows. saith that she is the widow of John Jordan deceased, who was rather under the middle stature as to height stout or square built. fare complection red hair eyes blue by some might be called gray would have been if he had lived to this time about eighty ~~eight~~ years of age, that she was married to said John at the house of George Jordan, in Northampton county, by Samuel Smith a justice of the peace about three years after the surrender of Cornwallis on the first sunday in february as well as she now can recollect in the year 1784 seventeen hundred & eighty four, that said John was following overseeing, & the first year they lived with Isham Smith in Gunnell county state of Virginia, then with simon Turner then with Henry Bayley, then settled of to themselves, from there moved to Washington county state of Georgia, where she now lives & where said John died on the seventeenth day of August eighteen hundred and twenty eight that she is still a widow never having married since the death of said John.

Sworn to & subscribed the day & year aforesaid. —

As to the enlistment & services of said John she only knows from rumor at the time of his enlistment he being a family connection it was spoken of in the connection & what he has told her of the matter, which is in part as follows. He said he enlisted as a private in the Continental service, in Granville County state of Virginia, was under Captain Francis Moore, & Col Elliot she does not recollect if these were the first officers he was under but he spoke of them as favourite officers; she does not recollect what was the time he enlisted for, whether he enlisted for three year or for a longer term & served three years, but as he was a regular soldier these facts will be found on the records at the War Department, & will be more satisfactory, He said he was with the army to the south in Hancock was taken or surrendered to the British at the fall of Savannah in Georgia, that he was put on board a prison ship for three months & seventeen days, was exchanged & permitted to pass through his native County Granville Virginia on his way to join the army that he was at the taking of Cornwallis, and soon after that event was discharged & returned home to Mary Hayley in his native state & County had the Small pox. She says that her memory is weak from old age & she may have recited the facts relative in an irregular manner but as the records of her husbands service will shew most of the material facts. Her husband stated to her that the papers which he got from his officers when he left the service he had put into the hands of some one who she does not now recollect to obtain for him his lands &c. and that he had not got either land or pay back, Her husband never applied for a pension, she further says that she has no record of her marriage nor is there any to her knowledge and no record was kept in the County where she was married as appears by a certificate of the clerk of that County accompanying this application.

Hi Vivian,

Of course you could be right. Mary Ann Jordan has not sent the info I requested, BUT– she says, on the phone, that she has a copy of my Benjamin Jordan's will,(died in 1860) in which he leaves everything to his daughter, JANE JORDAN HUDSON. His wife had died in 1858. Also, I have re-checked the census for 1830 for my Ben and there was only one daughter listed, age 15-20. There were 2 males, age 20-30 listed in Benjamin's family , whether they were sons of his or not, I do not know.

My gg-grandmother, Mary Caroline (Carrie), was already married to G.L. ALEXANDER,and living next door, with her two eldest children, Adaline and Marshall (my ggrandfather). She was listed in her obituary (in 1835) as being the eldest daughter of Benjamin.

Wonder why JANE was the only one to inherit? Were all other children dead by then? Had he already given inheritances to his other children, if any? I know my g-grandfather was a wealthy man in 1860, where he was listed in Cherokee County, AL, shortly before he married my g-grandmother. He was 30 years old and his bothers were28 and 26, so they probably had received their mother's part of Ben's estate when they reached their majority.

I have done very little research, yet, due to a busy summer, so I have not researched farther. Mary Ann seemed to think that he was REUBEN Jordan's son, but I have received proof from another source that he is not. I still think his father was probably the OLD Benjamin, listed in Merriwether county in 1840, who was 90-100 years old and a Revolutionary War Vet.

Keep in touch on this mess!!

Bye now, y'all :-)
Lucy

Sounds good

Hi Vera,

Of course you could be right. Maybe Ann Jordan was not even the only I married. BUTT- she says on the photo that she has a copy of my Benjamin Jordan's will dated in 1820 in which he leaves everything to his daughter, JANE JORDAN HUDSON. He was born in 1824. Also, I have re-checked the census for 1830 for my town and there was only one daughter listed, age 15-20.
There were 2 males, age 20-30 listed in Benjamin's family, whether they were sons of his or not, I do not know.

My great-grandmother, Mary Caroline (Carie), was already married to G.L. ALEXANDER and living next door, with his two oldest children, Adline and Marshall (my grandfather). She was listed in her obituary (in 1925) as being the eldest daughter of Benjamin.

Wonder why JANE was the only one to inherit? Were all other children dead by then? Had he already given inheritances to his other children, if any? I know my g-grandfather was a wealthy man in 1860, where he was listed in Cherokee County, AL, shortly before he married my g-grandmother. He was 30 years old and his bottom was 28 and 23, so they probably had received their inheritance out of Family assets when they reached their majority.

I have done very little research, yet, due to a busy summer, so I have not reached other Settlers. Mary Ann is named to them this he was REUBEN Jordan's son, so I have received proof from another source that he is out. I still think his father was probably the OLD Benjamin, listed in Mecklenburg county in 1840, who was 80-100 years old and a Revolutionary War Vet.

Keep in touch on this matter!

Bye now, Yall :)
Lucy

Hi, (sorry, don't know your name)

I think you and may connect. I don't read the messages on aol much,but found yours the other day.

My gggrandmother, Mary E.Caroline JORDAN ALEXANDER was the daughter of Benjamin Jordan of Jasper Co., GA. She is the only child on whom I have any info.
She is listed in the newspaper account of her marriage to George Lee ALEXANDER as being the eldest daughter of Benjamin Jordan, Esq. of Jasper County. She was born 1807 and died in 1835 at the age of 28.Account in news of her death again stated that she died at the home of her Father, Benjamin Jordan, Esq. of Jasper County. Benjamin and his wife Elizabeth took these children and raised them until grown.

I know by the census that her father had 3 sons and 3 daughters. I do not know any of their names, but she named her daughter ADELINE and one of her sons THOMAS, so there is a pretty good chance that you and I may connect. Her children were:

1. Adaline C. Alexander, b. 01 May, 1827 md. Joseph C. White at the home of her grandfather, Benjamin Jordan of Jasper Co. on 19 March, 1848.

2. Marshall Jedidiah Alexander, b. 26 March, 1829, md. Cynthia Elizabeth McElrath at the home of her father, Dr. William McElrath in Cherokee Co., AL on 06 Nov., 1860.
They were my great-grandparents. Capt. C.S.A ,died of hepatitis due to poor camp conditions in Sept. 1862. My grandmother was their only child to survive and was born 7 months after her father's death. She was named for him: Marshall Jedidiah Alexander, Jr.!! She married J.T. ROBERTS.

3. William F. Alexander, b. 22 Aug., 1831, Sgt. in C.S.A. died in Battle of Richmond in Virginia on 30 June, 1862.

4. Thomas J(ordan) Alexander, b. 13 Dec., 1833. Where did he go?

Don't know what the E. in Mary Caroline's name stood for, but always thought it was

CHAPTER 24

Batchelor-Williams by Lyle Keith Williams

THE JORDAN FAMILY

At the outset it should be stated that credit for this chapter is due many persons and sources but primarily to Mrs. Octavia Jordan Perry in her book, These Jordans Were Here (1969). The bibliography shows other important sources. There has been so much published on the JORDAN family that it would serve no useful purpose in trying to incorporate greater detail in this chapter. Accordingly, only enough JORDAN data to reflect the intermarriages and connecting lines with other families in this book will be shown here.

This branch of the Jordan family probably originated in France and became associated with the Reform Movement (Huguenots). They went to England and eventually came to the New World.

King James I of England granted a charter for settling two plantations in America; one in the Massachusetts area and the other in the Virginia area. The charter for the southern area was granted in 1606.

In December, 1606, three small ships and 104 colonists left England and arrived in Virginia, May 14, 1607. This colony at Jamestown, VA, became the first permanent English Colony, notwithstanding the fact that it almost collapsed a time or two.

Samuel Jordan (1578-1623), the first of the Jordans to come to America, left Plymouth, England, on June 18, 1609, and sailed for James Towne with the interim governor, Sir Thomas West. They sailed on the Seaventure with "Sixe hundred land men" in a fleet of "eight good ships and one pinnance" under the command of Sir George Somers. Somers' flotilla encountered a severe storm near the Bermudas, which left the Seaventure unseaworthy. The other ships continued on their way to Jamestown. The passengers of the Seaventure, including Governor West, Samuel Jordan, and the Flotilla Commander, Sir George Somers, decided to stay in Bermuda and build two new ships, instead of attempting to repair the Seaventure, in order to carry additional food and supplies the island provided. Samuel Jordan was elected to keep the day-to-day journal because he was well educated.

Samuel's log serves as the basis of much of our information today. The shipwrecked persons built two new ships, the Patience and the Deliverer partly out of the wreckage of the Seaventure. They set sail again for James Towne, May 10, 1610, and arrived on July 25, 1610. Pedigree, Part A:

I. SAMUEL JORDAN (b. ca 1578, Wiltshire, England; d. Mar., 1623, Charles City, VA). W/1, (unknown). His first wife, whom he married in England, probably died before he departed for America. She was dead by 1620 as he was "considered a special catch for any eligible woman at that time." Samuel w/2, Cecily (Cicilly/Sisley), (nee probably Green) Baley/Bailey, a widow with a young dtr, Temperance Baley. Cecily was born in England, and arrived in America, August, 1610, on the Swan. Samuel Jordan may have been her their husband and she was known in the colony as the widow Baley with a three year old dtr.

When Samuel died he left Cicely with one additional dtr and another soon to be delivered. He was then about 46 years of age. Rev. Grivell Pooley, who had conducted Samuel's funeral, proposed to the widow shortly afterwards. She apparently consented, feeling the need for a protector, subject to the engagement being kept secret due to the timeliness of Samuel's death and her pregnancy. However, Rev. Pooley "spread the word" of the engagement, and this so ired the young widow that she refused to go through with the wedding. Soon after this, widow Cecily became engaged to Col. William Farrar, and Rev. Pooley thereupon instituted the first breach of promise suit in America. Cecily won the law suit. However, the governor and the council enacted a law which prohibited women from engaging themselves to more than one man at the same time. Shortly after the lawsuit, Cecily wed Col. Farrar and had two sons. Cecily wed (4th) Peter Montague and (5th) Thomas Parker.

Samuel Jordan was a member of the first House of Burgesses, the first legislative body in the Western World, a representative of James City, convened at James City, July 30, 1619, by Sir Goerge Yardley, Knight, Governor and Captaine General of Virginia.

A land grant of 450 acres was conveyed by Gov. Yardley, Dec. 10, 1620, to Samuel and Cecily Jordan, which lay on the south side of the James River just below the confluence of the Appomattox with the James, and he called his plantation "Jordan's Journey". He built a manor house on it which he spoke of as "Beggars' Bush". Both Samuel and Cicely have been accorded the title of "Ancient Planter", by Virginia. When an Indian uprising occurred in that vicinity on Mar. 22, 1622, Samuel gathered his family and neighbors into his home, fortified it, and survived. But his son, Robert, was killed by the Indians. Children of Samuel Jordan:

First wife - ?

1. Anne Marie Jordan (b. ca 1596, England). Came to America and wed Laurence Hulet.
2. Robert Jordan (b. ca 1598, England). Came to America and was killed by Indians, Mar. 22, 1622. Living with parents at time of death - believe not married.
3. THOMAS JORDAN (1600-1644). See II below.
4. Samuel Jordan (b. England). Came to America Prior to 1623, and returned to England for study at Oxford's All Souls College, where he matriculated 1621-24. He returned to America as he was awarded, May, 1625, 450 acres in the "Territory of Great Weyonoke." Little else is known of him. It is deduced from wills and other records of his descendants that he moved to Surry Co., VA, then to Lunenburg Co., and that his descendants moved west to Tennessee, Kentucky, and Indiana.

Second wife - Cecily Baley

5. Mary Jordan (b. 1621, VA).
6. Margaret Jordan (b. 1623, VA, after the death of her father in Mar., 1623).

II. THOMAS JORDAN (b. 1600, England; d. 1644, probably Isle of Wight Co., VA). Came to America on the Diana in 1623 and took up a land grant in 1624, which the Virginia Company had given his father who had never taken out the patent on it. He was a soldier with Sir George Yardley. He was the first of his family in the Isle of Wight Co., VA, and from which county he was a Burgess 1629-1632. (Several references state that he married Lucy Corker, dtr of William Corker and Lucy White and that he died in 1685. Actually, ~~Lucy~~ was born in 1659 and was married ca 1684 to Thomas Jordan (1655-1685), son of Arthur Jordan and Elizabeth of Surry County. Thus, the two Thomas Jordans have become confused.) Thomas Jordan's (1600-1644) wife is not known and although it would seem certain that he had several children, only two are positively identified:

1. THOMAS JORDAN, II (1634-1699). See III below.
2. Margaret Jordan. Wed James Davis.

III. THOMAS JORDAN (b. July 7, 1634, Chuckatuck, Nansemond Co., VA; d. Dec., 1699, Isle of Wight Co., VA). He wed, 1658-59, Isle of Wight Co., VA, Margaret Brashere (Brashier/Bresseur/Brasseour/Brasseur) (b. Sept. 1642, VA; d. Dec. 7, 1708, VA), probably the dtr of Robert Brashere (b. ca 1620, Avignon, France; d. 1665, Calvert Co., MD) and who was granted land in Nansemond Co., VA, 1638. The Brasheres were French Huguenots. Thomas Jordan and his wife, Margaret, had ten sons. Several genealogical works ascribe two daughters (Elizabeth and Margaret) born to them, but most evidence favors these two as being daughters-in-law.

An interesting observation at this point: The compiler of this book is descended from four of these sons, viz., Robert, Richard, Joseph, and Joshua. Additionally, Robert's first wife, Christian (Taberer) Outland, had previously been married to William Outland, and he is descended from her also. (See Chapter 45, THE OUTLAND FAMILY). This occurred mainly because of the Quaker practice of "Marrying within the faith" and to living in proximity of one another in the days when people didn't often venture out of their own neighborhoods to find a mate.

At the age of sixteen, or about 1658, Margaret Brashere, the wife of Thomas Jordan, united with The Truth (Quakers or Friends) and was no doubt responsible for leading her husband "into the light." The Religious Society of Friends, ("Quakers") was founded about 1647 when England was in a religious upheaval. Various groups - Anglican, Puritan, Roman Catholic - were ripping the country apart. Into this turmoil came George Fox (1624-1691) founder of "The Religious Society of Friends." His followers soon adopted the name of "Quakers" because Fox had told a judge to "quake and tremble at the word of God." These people formed a group that was not concerned with the religious wrangling that surged around them. They renounced all kinds of war and strife. They had no definite creed, no ordained ministry. All they wanted was to have peace and to get on with the job of serving God and his people. William Penn, Protestant saint and founder of Pennsylvania, set up a refuge in America for Quakers and other persecuted people. Many Quakers had left England for America by 1656 and settled up and down the East Coast from Rhode Island to North Carolina.

The Virginia General Assembly passed laws in 1660 which prohibited Quakers from coming into the Province of Virginia. For his new faith, Thomas Jordan of Chuckatuck endured all the persecutions that were visited upon the Quakers, both in Virginia and England. He was imprisoned and he had property confiscated. Eight of the ten sons of Thomas and Margaret continued in The Faith. Only Thomas Jordan, III, (1660-1759) and Samuel Jordan (1679-1719) became Episcopalians. Thomas Jordan (1634-1700) was sheriff of Nansemond Co., VA, in 1969, and a Burgess of that county 1696-1699. Children: (All born Chuckatuck Parish, Nansemond Co., VA).

Dear Cousins,

I'm begging again for information on my BENJAMIN JORDAN, b. 1776/7 in NC; d.1860, Jasper Co. GA.

You all know how long I have been researching this Benjamin JORDAN's ancestry. I still don't have it, BUT, it seems that his wife, ELIZABETH, listed on the 1850 census with him was not his first wife, nor the mother of his girls.

She was the WIDOW of another JORDAN man, possibly a brother and originally lived in Jefferson County, GA. I found her will on Jordan's web site. She died in 1852 and devised in her will to HER children, STERLING JORDAN, THOMAS G. JORDAN, MARY BYRNE, NANCY LOWE & SARAH ROGERS.

BENJAMIN JORDAN was associated with HENRY and STERLING JORDAN in 1815 & 1816, according to newspaper reports in The Southern Historical Press, published in Milledgeville, GA during that period.

It has been recorded that BENJAMIN JORDAN's wife ELIZABETH died in 1852 and BENJAMIN died in Jasper County, GA in 1860 and devised his estate to his only living daughter, JANE L. JORDAN HOLLAND, b. 1813 in VA.His eldest daughter, MARY ELIZABETH CAROLINE JORDAN ALEXANDER, b. 1809 in VA, died in 1835 in Jasper County at BENJAMIN's home. He gave property to her 4 children as they married or came of age.

STERLING JORDAN was the executor of a will for a HENRY JORDAN in 1816, could this have been his father and 1st husband of ELIZABETH?? I know there was an elder STERLING JORDAN who received bounty land in GA in 1799. What connection does he have to these people.

Please read the excerpts below pertaining to these people, and if you know ANYTHING about them, please,please,please, contact me!!! BENJAMIN is my MOST WANTED ancestor and has been for 5 years.

Bye now y'all, :-)

Dear Joan,

In this packet you will find material relating to two Englishmen named Peter Cogan who died intestate 1590 and left estates. His papers have been indexed but papers seem to be missing. See if you can discover his heritage. Also a certain John Cogan who was living as late as 1613.

See if these two Cogans left any connection with the children named John I, John II, Humphrie, William, Walter, Margaret, Elizabeth.

Send some film, maybe 135 millimeter, to your son or someone else in Tiverton and take some pictures around town. Maybe you can find a street map of this place. Maybe a local history. Advise.

Then study the latest article from the family newletter Ganttrees. I have copied the material printed therein from researcher Tommie Uselton, of Marshall, Texas, USA. In the reasearch is mentioned as early as 1650, on the island of Barbadoes in the Caribbean an Ensign Robert Gent. Ensign Robert Gent was mentioned in William Greene's will and also was executor of the will of Phillip Costello (Cotellon) dated 12 May 1654. On 20 March 1677, in St. Lucy's Parish, Capt. Robert Gent was mentioned in a will of Gideon Golding and as a friend. See if you can shed any light on this officier. Reason would place this officier as an Englishman. I would think that an Ensign and Captain would be more than an symbolic title and a commissioned officer in the Royal Arm Forces of the king. Reason would place an Ensign not in the merchant trade but a Captain could be a merchant vessel officier..

Waiting or your relpy for these knoty matters and Sincerely, Don Scroggins

Dear Cliff:

In the last issue of Ganttrees, is an article of people named Jordan and Powell of colonial Barbados and these names triggered a response that compelled me to send note about other people so named in my files. While maybe boring, you are going to get them anyway. The notes prove nothing but maybe they will shred some light and help in identifying the Gents of Virginia.

In the book, John Gant ca 1713-1783 of Virginia and North Carolina, page 20-21, is mentioned the Gents of Charles Cittie, or William and Thomas Gent. As mentioned one died there 1689. In this area is located Powells Creek named for Nathaniel Powell acting governor in 1619 and is located on one side of "Coggins Point" and empties out into James River across from Harrison's Landing and Westover.

I am not sending every note about the Jordans as this family name is found in several American colonial locations. However, I would like to point out about two men named Samuel Jourdan that is the same name as your account in the last issure. The first Samuel Jourdan by court testimony must have been present in Virginia in about 1610 and I have not anyone who has identified him. However, there is another Samuel Jourdain, who was baptized 30 June 1607 and his parents were Ignatius Jourdaine and Elizabeth Baskerville Jourdaine. This Samuel Jordan would be the 11th child of a family of 17 children. His three sisters, Sarah, Elizabeth and Mary Jordan are known to have come to colonial America. This Samuel Jourdan's grandfather would have been Sir Thomas Baskerville who accompanied a 300 man army on Sir Francis Drake and John Hawkins' last raid on Panama in search of Spanish treasure. Shortly before this raid August 1596-February 1597, Sir Francis Drake was in communication with one of "his cronies" a justice named Thomas Gent of Plymouth, England.

Now without comment I will sent you some notes that I have collected the past few months about some Jordans of England and Virginia, North Carolina.

Chapter Two. John Gant. c1713-1783. His Ancestry

Was John Gent of Isle of Wight Co. VA or his father born on the island of Barbadoes? The following information sent to us by Tommie Uselton of Marshall, TX, might indicate that possibility.

The island of Barbadoes in the West Indies brings to mind a romantic tropical paradise with a warm climate and tall palm trees swaying in a gentle breeze. But does it bring to mind the possibility that this was the first home in North American of the "immigrant" ancestor of John Gant (1).

My Encyclopedia Britannica informs me that the climate of Barbados is generally pleasant as it rarely rises above 86 degrees F. or below 72 degrees F.; however, it gets wet with an average rainfall of 60 inches and can get very windy as it lies along the southern border of the Caribbean huricane zone. The island is only 21 miles long and 15 miles wide with its highest point, Mt. Hillaby, at 1,115 feet.

The first settleres of Barbadoes were thought to be Arawak Indians and the first Europeans were the Spanish Conquistadores seeking slaves for their settlement at Hispaniola in the early 1500s; however, by the mid 1500s, no Indians remained and the Spanish claims to the territory had elapsed.

While there were landings by the English early in the 1600s, it wasn't until 1627 that a party of settlers, under the leadership of Henry Powell, began the occupation and control of this island by England under James I. During the early 1640s, the population consisted of 2,500 whites and 1000 blacks. Among these whites was Robert Gent and his sons, Marvin and Robert, Jr.

From the thoroughness and alertness of research by Tommie Uselton, on of our more productive Research Contributors, we have learned that, at least as early as 1650, Ensign Robert Gent was in Barbados because he was mentioned as a friend of William Greene in Green's will dated in that year. This is from Barbadoes Records, Wills and Administrations, Vol. 1, 1639-1680 by Sanders.

Same source indicates that Lt. Robert Gent was the executor of the will of Phillip Costello (Cotellon) dated 12 May 1654. In the will of Gideon Golding (Goldring) of St. Lucy's Parish dated 20 Mar 1677, Capt. Robert Gent was mentioned as his friend.

In Vol. II, 1681-1700, of the same work, Marvin Gent was shown as a witness to the will of John Coburne of St. Lucy's Parish dated 2 Oct 1682. In the will of Phillip Reade of St. Lucy's Parish dated 28 Aug 1682, witnesses included Robert Gent, Lt. Robert Gent, Jr. and Marvin Gent. Robert Gent and Martin (Marvin ?) Gent were witnesses of the will of Robert Turneham, Sr. of St. George's Parish dated 9 May 1683. The executors of the will of Samuel Jordan, Jr., dated 8 Jun 1700, included his son Gent Jordan and Marvin Gent.

In Vol. III of the same work, the will of Marvin Gent dated 26 Aug 1717 mentioned Alice Homeyard; Gent Jordan; the children of Edward and Alice Archer; Robert and Benjamin How; grand daughter, Eliza Gent, wife Margaret and son, Thomas Gent, with Samuel Bowen and John Curll as witnesses. William Jordan, in his will dated 17 sep 1717, named Marvin Gent as his son-in-law.

Surnames of other persons mentioned in the above transcripts by Sanders (Which may be of significance as such names appeared later in VA with Gent surnames) were Symonds, Holland, Hunt, Daniel and Lovell (1655); Butler (1657); Blades (1660); Corbin (1667); Davis (Davies) (1682); Turner and Strole (1686); Barnes (1716); Barrow (1703); Jones (Peter, 1717).

southern border of the Cherokees but some areas. The island is only 21 miles long and 15 miles wide with its highest point, Mt. Hillaby, at 1,115 feet.

The first settlers of Barbados were thought to be Arawak Indians and the first Europeans were the Spanish Conquistadores seeking slaves for their settlements in Hispaniola in the early 1500s. However, by the mid 1500s, no Indians remained and the Spanish claims to the territory had elapsed.

While there were forays by the English early in the 1600s, it wasn't until 1627 that a party of settlers, under the leadership of Henry Powell, began the occupation and control of that island by England under James I. During the early 1640s, the population consisted of 2,500 whites and 1000 blacks. Among these whites was Robert Cleer and his sons, Melvin and Robert, Jr.

From the documents and abstracts of research by Tomwin Dutton, on file at our study provided by Western Cleerhouse, we have learned that, at least as early as 1670, Joseph Robert Cleer was in Barbados because he was mentioned as a friend of William Cleerer in Cleerer's will dated in that year. This is from Scarborough Records. With new information, Vol. I, 1673-1687 by Sanders.

Some source indicates that Lt. Robert Cleer was the executor of the will of Phillip Cleerer (Cleerer) dated 12 May 1674. In the will of Cleerer Cleering (Cleering) of St. Lucy's Parish dated 30 Mar 1677, Capt. Robert Cleer was mentioned as his friend.

In Vol. II, 1687-1708, of the same work, Melvin Cleer was shown as a witness to the will of John Cleerer of St. Lucy's Parish dated 2 Oct 1692. In the will of Phillip Beach of St. Lucy's Parish dated 22 Aug 1692, witnesses included Robert Cleer, Lt. Robert Cleer, Jr. and Melvin Cleer. Robert Cleer and Melvin Cleerer 2) Cleer were witnesses to the will of Robert Tomlinson, Sr. of St. George's Parish dated 9 May 1692. The witnesses of the will of Samuel Jordan, Jr., dated 4 Jan 1700, included his son Cleer Jordan and Melvin Cleer.

In Vol. III of the same work, the will of Melvin Cleer dated 26 Aug 1717 mentioned Alice Cleerer; Cleer Jordan; the children of Edward and Alice Cleerer; Robert and Elizabeth Cleer; grand daughter, Eliza Cleer; wife Margaret and son, Thomas Cleer, with Samuel Barnes and John Cleer as witnesses. William Jordan, in his will dated 27 Jan 1717, named Melvin Cleer as his executor.

Some of these persons mentioned in the above summary by Sanders (Melvin) may be of equal cousins to the Cleers appeared later in VA with Cleer surnames) were Brooke, William, Hugh, Isaac, Isaac (Jacob) (1657), Baker (1677), Blake (1680), Cooke (1687), Dent (Dent) (1687), Cooper and Cook (1688), Barnes (1716), Barnes (1720), Barnes (Pass, 1718).

In Barbados Records of Marriages in St. John Parish, 1643-1800, Vol. I by Sanders, we note a James Gant married Mary Pierce on 20 Oct. 1667. It may also be significant that Capt. Philip Kirton married Mary Applewhaite there on 16 Mar 1668.

It is apparent from a review of the above transcripts that the Gents and Jordans were very close in Barbadoes in the mid-1600s. It may also be significant that there was no record of a will, estate administration or other record for Robert Gent, Sr., Robert Gent, Jr. or Thomas Gent, the son of Marvin (Martin) Gent because of the fact that the names of Thomas and Robert Gent appeared in Virginia in the 1690s, some 10 years after the latest record for Robert Gent in Barbados.

We know that John Washington (the father of Richard Washington who sold John Gent 300 acres of land in Isle of Wight Co., VA in 1717), was in Barbadoes before migrating to Surry Co., VA and that other Washingtons lived there in the early 1700s. The earliest appearance of John Washington in Surry County (VA) records was in 1658 when he entered a contract of marriage with the widow, Mary Blunt Ford. Also, that Richard Washington married Elizabeth Jordan, daughter of Arthur Jordan of Isle of Wight Co., VA.

From articles about John Washington of Surry Co., VA in the numerous volumes of the Genealogies of Virginia by Tyler, we learned that John Washington, the son of Sir John Washington of England, was in Barbados in 1654 for that was the year when Theodore Pargiter, brother of Dorothy Pargiter who married Sir John Washington, wrote that "cozen John Washington" was in Barbados. There is good evidence that this John Washinton was the John Washington of Surry County, VA.
From another article in the above source, a Richard Washington of St Michael's Parish in Barbados left a will dated 21 Apr 1734 naming his wife, Elizabeth. Her maiden name was Rumbold and in her will dated 4 Mar 1744, she named her children as Richard, Mary, Eliza, George, John and Eleanor. Their son, Robert, had died in 1736 at age 10. These given names appear to tie the Washingtons of Barbados into the Washington families of Virginia.

Why all of this discussion about the Gents, Jordans and Washingtons of Barbados? Because the possibility is good that these families migrated from Barbados to Virginia sometime during the 1600s. Did Robert Gent, Sr. or Robert Gent, Jr. or a son or one of them (or all of them) migrate with John Washington to SurryCounty, VA? Was the Robert Gent of Henrico Co., VA (Mr. Richard Kennon was surety for his estate) related to Robert Gent of Barbados? Was Robert Gent, Sr. of Barbados the "immigrant" ancestor of Thomas Gent of Charles City Co., VA who died there in 1689 and of William Gent of Henrico/Prince George/Brunswick and John Gent and Richard Gent of Isle of Wight? Possibility is pretty good!

THE FAMOUS William Steele who was Lord Chancellor of Ireland in 1670 was one of the four councilmen appointed to conduct the case against King Charles I in the year 1649. He also took part in the prosecution of the Duke of Hamilton, who was found guilty of treason.

Another important Steele was Thomas, a Protestant who was educated at Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland. He was the possessor of large estates in County Clare and was instrumental in returning Daniel O'Connell to Parliament.

Anne Steele, the English hymn writer who was born in 1717, wrote 144 hymns, 34 metrical psalms and 50 moral poems. She led a rather sad life owing to the death of the man she was about to marry. Her work reflects this sadness but does not detract from its greatness. She died in the year 1778.

JORDAN

At the present time the name Jordan is found chiefly in counties Galway and Mayo. Although it is also a common English name, very few of the Irish Jordans are of English descent.

It is spelled MacSiurtain in Gaelic and was adopted by one of the hibernicized Norman families which acquired extensive territory in the West of Ireland after the invasion of 1172.

THE JORDAN SEPT were the first to be dubbed "Wild Irish;" this occurred in the 16th century. One of the Jordans who was killed in a battle was described by an historian as "the strongest hand and the bravest heart of all the Jordans of his time."

The present-day barony of Gallen in County Mayo, Ireland has long been known as "MacJordan's country" and it is so described in the "Composition Book of Connacht."

In England the name can be traced back to the year 1182 when a Robert "Jurdan" (as it was spelled then) was put on the Yorkshire records. From Yorkshire the name became common in Cambridgeshire 40 years later. Here we find a John Jordan entered in the Feet of Fines record which was dated 1220. Later the name appeared in the Sussex Subsidy Rolls of 1327.

WITH REGARD TO the origin of the English Jordan name it was derived from the River Jordan, used as a Christian name by returning crusaders who brought back with them Jordan waters for the baptism of their children.

In the year 1652 a member of the Augustinian Order, Father Fulgentius Jordan was martyred because of his beliefs.

The traditional coat-of-arms borne by the Jordans has a silver background. In the center of this is what is known as a "tesse," a horizontal band colored black. At the bottom of the shield there is a black lion standing on three legs with the right foreleg off the ground.

If you would like to see the history of your family name in a future column, write to The Name Game, The Houston Post, Houston, Texas 77001, it will be given every consideration.

ee physicians and a broad-shouldered class-six mountain climber who has roamed 20,000-foot altitudes. For a week end, even 8,000 feet will do. As long as there is a technical challenge.

The challenge is one of the rock structures called the Twin Owls. First winding their way through the trees, the climbers reach the steep slope that leads to the base of the cliffs. Here, they unpack their gear and spread it on a slab: Nylon ropes, neatly coiled; 60 pitons—steel spikes—of all sizes and colors; a mess of hemp sling rope; six rope ladders, with three aluminum steps each; water and food for an exhausting day.

AT 8 AM, THE rock face is still dark brown, evil-looking. It shoots up straight. No holds except for a black two-inch vertical fissure, sharp and narrow.

The men peer up, craning their necks at the rock. Now they don their hard hats. Sling the hardware around their midriffs. Separate into two parties who will attack the stony monster at distant points. Here, they rope in silently, purposefully. Then one man begins to nail his way up from a ramp; 100 yards to his left, another lead starts up. In each party, only one man at a time does the climbing. Very very slowly. When the sun finally hits the granite owl, they've only gained 50 feet.

For the bystander, there is no drama here. Only precision and caution and labor. For the men themselves, there is much more that day. They feel a great sense of achievement. For the first time in their lives, they have mastered the "class-six climbing."

Their key: The direct aid of using hardware, ropes, and other gear to climb steep rock that is otherwise unclimable. Direct-aid climbing makes it possible to ascend the most difficult rock, to brave thousands of feet, to hang upside down, and even to surmount overhanging rock. Class six is only for the best mountaineers. It takes years of experience in all kinds of terrain and raw guts. It also takes mechanical aptitude. That's why it's sometimes called "rock engineering."

You'll also need plenty of this engineering know-how when climbing ice walls on glaciers. A few years ago, for instance, America's mountaineering elite got together on the Cowlitz Glacier of Mount Rainier, Washington. The men were training for the first American Everest expedition.

FAMILY ORIGIN AND COAT OF ARMS

JORDAN

The early home of the Jordan family was in France, where the name was written as Jourdaine, Joudan or Jermain. The family is recoreded as having settled in England soon after the Norman Conquest in 1066. The original name is said to have been Giordami with Italy its native country.

The family was prominent in New Rochelle during the French religious wars of the 15th and 16th centuries. Adherance to the Protestant faith forced the Jordan family to flee to Germany, Switzerland, Scotland and England. Branches of the English family went to Ireland where there was already a Jordan family established.

The most famous of the American family was David Starr Jordan, the distinguished naturalist, educator and advocator of world peace. He became the first President of the Stanford University in California. His great grandfather was a descendant of Rufus Jordan, an early settler in Connecticut. Robert, Samuel and Tristam Jordan settled in Maine and Nathaniel settled in Pennsylvania. All came from England during the early years of the 17th century.

Many descendants of this ancient and widespread family can be found throughout the United States, prominent in the world of business and in the arts.

Dear Vivian & Dan,

I almost did faint! But was so glad to hear from you. Have intended writing you for some time, I am a lousy letter writer & do hate to do it! Just wondered if anyone wrote you that Hilda Leverette died back in May. Her case was so similar to Carrie's.

Henry is very interested in the Jordan background, has been corresponding with N.O. Thomas. If you have anything, Ben Jr & Henry would love having it.

Ben & I will have our 35th wedding anniversary Wednesday.

Isn't that fine old age!!. He is planning to retire in March.
He has enough vacation pooled to take from March until Sept.
when he will be 62 & can get social security & full pension.
Dan finishes next June, so hope we can make it.

Mary is really fixing up Marion's house, it's going to be so nice. I just loved Carrie so much, too, knowing Eliz. &
Mary, they are also such dears,
& love them like Carrie.

I am sorry but Ben nor
I can remember Gwyn's death date, it was Nov. 1970, but do not know the day. Ben's Daddy died Nov. 18, 1964.

Do hope you all get back before too long.

Love to you & your dear boys to the girls.

Dear Vivian,

I have filled out the form you sent — but didn't know what to put in for the top lines. Will you put it in? It is interesting to find out these things — but I've never known much except "word of mouth" about such matters. I do know that Daddy used to tell me that I was named for his great grandmother, whose name was Polly Pope. Also, one of Lonnie's ancestors was a Miss Polly Meisenheimer who married one of the early Treslers. (I always thought it so unlikely that there was another "Polly Trepler!"

We're getting along o.k. I'm sure Dan told you about Lonnie's forced retirement. However, we believe that everything will work out for the best.

Thank you for the Christmas pictures. I can't believe that the girls have just grown up so fast. They are all lovely.

Let us hear from you. Love to all, Polly

DEAR VIVIAN,

ENCLOSED ARE SOME COPIES OF DOCUMENTS YOU MIGHT FIND INTRESTING. THE MOST INTERESTING to ME ARE JOHN POPE JORDAN'S WILL AND THE APPRAISEMENT OF HIS PROPERTY. THOMAS BARKER, WHOSE WILL IS INCLUDED, WAS JOHN P. JORDAN'S FATHER-IN-LAW. THERE ARE ALSO SOME DEEDS CONCERNING JOHN T. JORDAN. I HAVE SENT COPIES OF these AND OTHER OLD PAPERS to MRS. WATKINS IN TEXAS, BUT I DON'T BELIEVE THEY'VE BEEN MUCH HELP.

I REALLY APPRECIATE THE COPIES OF the JORDAN LETTERS AND IVEY FAMILY History YOU MADE FOR ME. IF YOU HAVE OPPORTUNITY to SEE the IVEY History AGAIN, I WOULD LIKE to KNOW IF MY LINE OF IVY'S ARE INCLUDED. THE IVEY'S I'm INTERESTED IN ARE: EPHRAIM IVEY (CAME to GA. FROM VIRGINIA AFTER REVOLUTION), HIS SON RANDLE IVEY, HIS SON OLIVER IVEY, HIS SON BENJAMIN HENRY IVEY (MY GREAT GRAND FATHER).

IF YOU WOULD LIKE COPIES OF ANY OTHER PAPERS I HAVE JUST LET ME KNOW. TELL EVERYONE HELLO FOR ME.

Dear Aunt Vivian,

Thanks for your recent letter. It was good to hear from you all, and to see (via picture) that you all look so well. I will try to send you a decent picture of the children if and when we can ever get them clean. Ellen and I have declared a moratorium on pictures and will probably never (ever) have another one made. My ego just can't take it.

Seriously, we are fine and enjoying Kansas - even though it is bitterly cold here. It is necessary, I guess, to be mobile nowadays, but we have probably carried a good thing to extremes.

I misplaced the data sheet so I will just write our vital stastics:

Benjamin Thomas Jordan, Jr.
1-3-43, Zebulon, Georgia
Ellen Janes Jordan
12-22-43, Brooklyn, New York
Benjamin Thomas (Tom) Jordan, III
5-5-69, Decatur, Georgia
Lara Janes Jordan
8-8-71, Decatur, Georgia
Fuzzy the Cat, Birthdate unknown
(adopted - background highly questionable)

Ask for more info. 2/17/76

Ellen is writing part-time for a Kansas City newspaper and I am supposed to be Dean of this institution. Many would question what I'm supposed to be, however. Tommy is in the first grade, and Lara, (bless her heart) just wants to grow up and be like her brother.

If you are ever in the Kansas City area, please let us know and we will give you a tour of the mid-west. Best wishes to all - and we would like a copy of the book when it is ready.

Love,

Ben

Dear Aunt Sylvia,

Thank you kindly for your letter. It was good to hear from you all, and to see (via photo) that you look so well. I will try to send you a decent picture of the children if and when we can afford the film. Ethan and I have developed a routine on weekdays, and the children seem happy (most) have another one made. My son just can't take it.

Seriously, we are fine and enjoying Kansas - even though it is pretty dull here. It is necessary, I guess, to be humble towards him. We have recently carried a good bottle to celebrate.

I enclosed the data sheet as I will have written our vital stats.

Dear Vivian,

My Father, John Thomas Pilkenton, has had a stroke and is unable to talk. H e will be 88 in August. He has been feeble for some years, but has just recently got where he could not talk.

We have tried for some years to find out about John T. Jordan but have been unable to do so. We have the same line on my Mother's side. All the information came from the Jordan Bible and I made mimeograph copies from it years ago and I expect the copy you have is one that I made. I gave more than 100 copies to relatives in and around Molena.

Mrs. Berta Jordan Barker is the daughter of M. K. Jordan and is still alive, but she could not give any more information. She is at the Molena Nursing Home. I believe she is the oldest living person in our line now.

Dan will recall who I am. Tell him that I have a son, Carl Presley, who is a freshman at Furman University. We are very proud of him.

We do hope if you ever get this information you will pass it on to us and we shall do likewise.

Sorry we are unable to furnish the desired information, but we do have some wonderful people in our background.

Sincerely,

Nelle Pilkenton Presley

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I found your letter to be most interesting and my delay in answering it has been due to the fact that I have been hoping to be able to secure some information that would be of help to you -

When Florence told me of your efforts to try to trace the Jordan line I was hopeful, too, that we might help others. But, our information is extremely limited.

My husbands father was Charles Marion Jordan, and his father's name was Isaac Jordan - The only information which I was able to get from any of the family was, that Mr. Isaac Jordan came down into North Carolina from "Virginia" and married, twice. Her second wife was Anne Hooker, and the town of Hooketon is named for them. Mr. Isaac Jordan and his wife died by the Tenie my husband's father Charles, was seven years old. Her Hooker grandparents took him into their home and he was reared with the children of the family, of which there were four sons and two daughters. I asked one of the older daughters if she remembered anything about Mr. Isaac Jordan, where he had come from, etc. She told me that all she could remember was that he was a tailor by profession and that he "always looked as if he had just stepped out of a bandbox"!

In Virginia, of which I am a native, the name was pronounced "Jer-dan". There are a number who live on the north-east coast of North Carolina, who may have, also, come into the state from Virginia. I have read an interesting account of a Jordan at Corapeke, N.C.

I have always wanted to get one line traced, but my husband doesn't share my interest in genealogy.

I am a member of the D.A.R. on my mother's line, Ballou. I also have a great deal of information on my father's line, Herndon, and on her mother's, Guerrant. I read in a recent issue of the Reader's Digest "one of the best keeps for assuring family detectives is the "How book for Genealogists" available at $3.00, from the Everton Publishers, Logan, Utah, 84321. Also for 50 cents, the "Guide to Genealogical Records in the National Archives" from the U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

I expect to order one or both of these. This information is on page 106 in the July "Digest".

We have heard of Sherry frequently through Betty and Florence, and I am sure that she is a lonely young person -

Well I wished help you - maybe the lady from Shreveport will be able to give you the information you want.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. Joseph) Sallie H. Jordan -

Mrs. Steinhagen;

Thank you for sending your copy of the Bible pages. I'm afraid that I'll need some clarification on who are the children of who- and so forth. I tried to get you on the phone all this morning for to write these questions is even more confusing to the reader. Guess things began to fall apart when I saw that M. E. Rhodes must of been 57 yrs. old when he married Mary (Melinda??) Jordan who was 13 at the time. From then on, I got more confused.

For instance: Who were the parents of Jeremah Franklin Heath? Maragret Sutton? etc.

I talked to the genealogist in Shreveport, La., and Augustus Franklin Jordan, didn't seem to connect with the John Thomas J. that we are working on, but then one never knows until it is proven one way or the other. She pulled from her memory, her records were at home, and said that a Lovick P. Jordan from Ga. had married several times and she had thought that the 2nd or 3rd wife was a Heath, but that maybe one of the children had married a Heath. She is to look this up tonight and let me know. Perhaps this will help your line for this Lovick P. Jordan was from Washington and Burke Co., Whenyou have sent a revised list, sorry I'm so stupid, I'll send it on to her in Louisiana.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Vivian Jordan

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I have been in Austin to see my husband. Have to go back the 15th and see if he can come home to stay - I don't think that he can. However to answer your questions Seaborn Jones and Margaret Sutton are a mystery. No one knows how they got into the Bible. I think that Seaborn Jones was Augustus Franklins real father even if the records in Pike county say that he is the illeg. son of Hicks. As for Mary Jordan, that married Rhodes, she was the sister of Augustus Franklin.

~~The names under Augustus Franklin and Mary Heath~~ brother of Jeffrey Heath Jordan

The names under Augustus Franklin and Mary Heath down to Tom Rhodes are the children of these two. Who the Jones and the Wards are I do not know. Their names are just in under births, deaths and marriages. Mary Melinda died August 11, 1861, 11 years before Mary married Rhodes.

Jeremah Franklin Heath could have been the brother of Mary Heath or some nephew Outside of Mary Heath I have not been able to make any other connections.

It has been 3 or 4 months since I have looked at any of this and now it is more than a little fuzzy. My husband isn't doing good enough to come home and I am in a fog at the moment. I hope what I have written will make a little more sense to you. If not ask some more question and maybe I can answer them. You can usually get me after 9 P.M. at TW 2-7484. The rest of the time I am at the farm, SW 6-1338, and I do not have my things out there yet. Trying to remodel and move there before the 15th. If it were not for the tape ministry and the learning of a little doctrine I would be with my husband in Austin, but thank God, I started listening to tapes 2 years ago and going to a Bible Church here in Beaumont, so God prepared me for this ordeal - only today I seem to have fallen flat on my face thinking human viewpoint, but I will get back on the track.

When I have time, I will get into this thing again and get some more info, but right now I just do not have the time to spend on it. I do hope that some of it will tie up with yours and that would help me alot on getting back before 1828. I think that I am going to have to go on my ~~Lassitter~~ Lassiter line rather than my Jordan line unless I can find out about the parents of Mary Heath.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I happened to see your query in the last issue of FAMILY PUZZLERS, and I just thought that I would pass on to you the very little bit of information that I have on the Jordan family.

My ancestor, Ezra Johnston (1802 - 1869), lived in Pike Co., Ga. He was married three times and had 21 children! His last wife was Catharine Jordan. This information was given to me by Ezra's granddaughter. I have found the record of Ezra's first two marriages, but I can't seem to find this last one. I did not find it in the Pike County records. I already knew his last wife's name was Catharine for I had seen this from the census records.

I do not know anything about her family. Catharine died about 1903 and was about 83 years old. Since I did not find the marriage record of Ezra and Catharine in Pike Co. I am assuming that the Jordan family did not live in Pike Co.for marriages usually took place in the county of the brides residence. The old log house that Ezra and Catharine lived in burned down in the 1930's so if the old Ezra Johnston bible could have given us any information it went up in flames. I plan to continue to work on the family of Ezra Johnston so if I find out anything on the Jordan family I will surely let you know. I am a 23 year old college student, and I do this research as a hobby. Good luck in your research!

Respectfully,
John Johnston

Do you know anyone in Texas who is researching the Johnstons?

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I happened to see your query in the last issue of Family Heritage, and I just thought that I would send on to you the very little bit of information that I have on the Brown family.

My ancestor, Jere Johnston (1802 - 1863), lived in Pike Co., Ga. He was married three times and had 21 children. His last wife was Catharine Jordan. This last marriage was by a Jewish rabbi, I have found the record of Jere's first two marriages, but I could see it fine this last one. I did not find it in the Pike County records. I already have the last rabbi's name was Jabarine for I saw this from the census records.

I do not know much about her family. Catharine died about 1903 and was also 83 years old. Since I did not find the marriage record of Jere and Catharine in Pike Co. I am assuming that they did not live in the Brown family old and live in Pike Co. for marriages usually took place in the county of the girl as residence. The old Jere house was burned down. Catharine lived in burned down in the 1920's so it was old enough to be frame. I plan to continue to work on this family of Jere Johnston as if I find a lineage on the Jordan family I will surely let you know. I am a 23 year old college student, and I do this for a hobby.

Hope that in your research!

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Johnston;

Thank you for your time and effort in writing to me of Catherine Jordan. From 1806 to the present time, I have all the information that is really needed on the Jordans...and no Johnstons, I'm sorry. A branch of my Jordans came to Louisiana and then to North Texas.... perhaps some stopped off in Alabama??

I wish you all the luck and perseverance in your search, for chances are you will need it! Altho, in my family line of Hill--I more o r less stumbled on the whole line by accident, and I only knew the name of my grandfather. But these Jordans are a different lot!! This is a good hobby for any and all, but I sometimes think that John Thomas Jordan didn't have any parents!!

Good luck to you also, and keep at it.

Sincerely,

Dear Vivian,

It was good to get your letter and to know that you are interested in the Jordan lineage. My sister has just sent me a copy of my family tree back as far as it has been traced, but this was for my direct lineage only. On the Jordan side it goes back to Absalam Jordan, whose will was recorded July 25, 1798 in Elbert County, Georgia. His son, Joshua was a soldier in the War of 1812. Joshua's son John Wootson Jordan was born 1812 and died in 1876. His son (who was my grandfather) was Quillian C. Jordan (1847-1886). My father was Moses Yancey Jordan (1877-1953). Do any of these names occur in your findings?

I talked to my sister the other night and asked where she got the Jordan information and it seems that most of the work was done by a distant cousin of ours, Hattie Shell Jordan, who is now deceased. However, she had a little booklet printed on the Jordan family, and you might like to study that. I don't know how many copies of the booklet, if any, are available, but if you would write to Mr. Chapman Bowers, Canon, Georgia, he might be able to lend, give, or sell you one. If they are scarce maybe somebody could photocopy it. Just ask for the Hattie Jordan book on the Jordan family.

My sister has the book I refer to, but I didn't ask her for hers because she is still working on the "tree," and is using it. I did ask her about John Thomas Jordan (1806 - ?). She said she would look for him in the book and write me her findings. She writes:

> I have searched the Hattie booklet from cover to cover and I couldn't find a single John Thomas Jordan. Not even a John T. Jordan. There were one or two plain Johns, but that is too general. I don't believe Cousin Hattie branched out far enough to reach the person of John Thomas. The only notation that could possibly be the one sought comes under the listing of the children of John W. Jordan and Nancy Fleming Jordan. After listing James M., Riley Parker, and Amelia, Hattie writes a line with 7 names and explains that they are all of Texas and Oklahoma. One of these names is J. T. Just in case the other names would link up, I will write them as Cousin Hattie wrote them: M.S., P.B., Brady, Mrs. Ellen Rice, Mrs. Henry Bruce, and H. B. I don't think this is much help. The best thing would be for your friend to write to the ordinary at the courthouse in the county where John Thomas lived and see if they can locate a will or marriage license or birth certificate, or some such record.

The fact that the J.T. that my sis referred to did go to Texas sheds a ray of hope. So, why don't you try to get Cousin Hattie's book, or a copy of it, and see if it leads you anywhere. Best luck!

If you really get to pulling your hair because of the blind alleys you enter, I'm enclosing a list of professional genealogists--just hire one and save your sanity.

Our best to you five,

Helen

Dear Vivian,

It was good to get your letter and to know that you are interested in my family lineage. My sister has just sent me a copy of my family tree that is 8 ft. in it has been traced, but this was for my direct lineage only. In the Joyce side it goes back to Abraham Jordan. Jones with the exception of Jim in Illinois Country, Ireland. His son, James was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. James's son John Jordan, Jr. was born 1812 and died in 1871. His son Cyrus was a prosperity farmer) was William B. Jordan (1847-1920). My father was Vernon Jordan (1877-1931). Do any of these names ring a bell with you?

I talked to my sister-in-law on my visit and asked where she got the Jordan information and it came from one of her uncles who was the family genealogist of sorts. Both of all Jordan. Who is now deceased. However, she had a little booklet written the Jordan family, and you might like to study it. I don't know how many copies of the booklet. If any, are available, but if you would write to Mr. Vernon Jordan, Jonesboro, he might be able to lead you to such a copy. If they are available, probably could photocopy it. Just ask for the Julia Jordan book on the Jordan family.

August 12, 1969

Dear Mrs. Hancock;

Your very kind letter was received just the other day. I do thank you for all your time and trouble in copying that Jordan information. I'm pretty sure that it is the same information that I put into Car-Del-Scribe some time ago....hoping that someone could help me with old John Thomas Jordan!! Mrs. Watkins and I have been working on him for some time now, and I'm not too sure but what he wasn't just hatched someplace!!!!

You are correct in assumming that Ann Eliza Beckham would be of interest to Mildred for she has been hired by a cousin of my husbands, in Louisiana, to try and trace the Jordans.....and she is stuck at 1806, John Thomas Jordan; the same as I.

Wish I could help you in some way. My information is fairly complete from 1806 to now.....and Harriet doesn't mean anything. Do you know her parents name?

Once again, thank you for your wonderful thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I am responding to your query in a July issue of Family Puzzlers in regard to the family of one John Thomas Jordan 1806-1859.

While I do not have any data on your John Thomas, nor have I done any research whatsoever on Jordan, I may have a possible clue for you.

Sarah Lewis, widow of Philip Lewis, left a will in Elbert Co. Ga. dated 1823, probated 1824 in which she named her children. Included in that list was Nancy Jurdin. I know nothing further of Nancy but this Lewis family was from Granville Co. N.C. to Elbert Co. Ga. during the 1780's. We do not have an exact birthdate for any of the twelve children of Sarah (Shearman) Lewis, but other records indicate that at least two daughters and one son were older than Nancy- maybe others also, which would give an estimated birthdate for Nancy Lewis Jurdin as probably in the 1780's, which would surely allow for a son to be born 1806.

Another thing- Nancy Lewis Jurdin/Jordan had brothers both John and Thomas, and other generations of the family combined them as John Thomas.....but again both are very common given names.

This Lewis family (my husband is a gr.gr.gr. grandson of Philip and Sarah Lewis) lived in the southeastern part of Elbert Co. not very far from the Wilkes Co. line. The reconstructed 1790 Elbert Co. census lists only one Jordan- Absolem- who lived in that same eastern part of the county. He could be the husband of Nancy- I don't know. In fact I don't even know where Nancy lived. Most of the Lewises left Elbert Co. before 1840 for Shelby Co. Ala. Later they moved to northern La. and to east Texas.

If you find that your John Thomas Jordan is a son of Nancy Lewis Jordan, I have much Lewis data that I would be happy to share with you, and in return would love to have anything you could share, on that branch of the family.

If all this means nothing to your line of research, just use this stamp to answer someone else- but I'm hoping we can be of some help to each other.

Sincerely,

Florence Lewis

Dear Mr. Lewis:

I am writing relative to your query in a recent issue of Family Chronicle in regard to the family of John Thomas Jordan 1808-1859.

While I do not have any data on your John Thomas, nor have I done any research in Tennessee or Jordans, I may have a possible clue for you.

Henry Lewis, widow of Phillip Lewis, left a will in Tyler Co., Va. (now W. Va.) in which she mentions her children. Included in that list is John Thomas Jordan. I have no further data on that line. Henry was from Harrville Co. N.C. to Tyler Co. Va. in 1790's. We do not have an exact approximate for any of the twelve children of Henry (Johnson) Lewis, but other records indicate, that at least two daughters and one son were older than Henry- maybe others too. Which would give estimated birthdate of Henry Lewis Jordan as possibly in the 1790's, which would be [illegible] for a son of Henry Lewis.

Another thing- Henry Lewis Jordan/Jordan had brothers John and Thomas, and other relatives of the family combined them as John Thomas.....but again both are very common given names.

This Lewis family (or Hughes) is a gr.-gr.-gr. grandson of Phillip and Sarah Lewis) lived in the southeastern part of Albert Co. not very far from the Wilkes Co. line. The records reported 1790 Albert Co. census lists only one Jordan- Abolem- who lived in that southern part of the county. We could be the husband of Nancy. I don't know even when Nancy lived. Most of the Jordans left Albert Co. before 1810 for Tenn. Ky. Ill. Iowa moved to northern Ia. and to east Texas.

If you [illegible] your John Thomas Jordan is not of Lewis descent, I have good hunch that other I would be a way to share with you, and in return would love to have anything you could share, at least branch of the family.

If all this means nothing to your line of research, just [illegible] search it [illegible] somewhere else- but I'm hoping [illegible] can be of more help [illegible] other.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Thank you very much for your reply to my letter of January tenth. I have searched my notes for a Benjamin Jordan and can only find one. Benjamin Jordan son of John Jordan 2nd and Eliza Smith Jordan born 7-4th-1829 died November 17-1912 in Washington County Georgia. These names and dates were found in a library in Albany, Georgia. If they should be of any value? I will be glad to see if I can be of any help with them.

If you would be so kind, as to check These Jordanns Were Here? and see if you could find any connection for me, it will certainly be appreciated.

I-H.A.Jordan Sr. born 2-17-1908 Calhoun County, Ga. Son of J.L.Jordan born 2-19-1879 Randolph County, Ga. Son of Noah D. Jordan born 3-25-1853 Randolph County Ga. Son of James E. Jordan born in Virginia in 1802. The 1850 census shows James P. Jordan age 49, wife Sarah age 35 and son James F. Jordan age 16 were all born in Virginia. From family sources, James E. wife Sarah and son James F. left Virginia after 1834 for Barnwell County S.C. and as stated above were found in Randolph County Georgia in 1850 with a son George P. age 8 to 12 born in Georgia.

Deeds, Wills and land records of Randolph County show James P. Jordan was James E. Jordan. My grandfather Noah D. his mother Sarah and brothers James F. and George P. were left property in his will. I can not account for the P. in the 1850 census, unless the taker made an error.

Thanking you in advance for any information that you can offer, I remain

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Thank you for your data on Benjamin Jordan 1829-1912. Afraid this isn't mine! I appreciate your time...maybe someday I'll find him.

I've checked "These Jordans Were Here" and at first glance there aprears to be no connection for you, but since there is quite a few 'James' in the index and since I really didn't have too long to spend on checking them all-I'll give it another try as soon as I can.

Also, I'm enclosing some notes on your people...I'm probably going over already plowed ground but here they are for what it is worth.

We have a Randolph Co. history book and there are no Jordans listed as 'early settlers' are anything else.

In your 1850 sensus of Randolph Co....the listing 'George P. 8/12' means that George is 8 months old!!

I'm attaching my findings as I checked our Soundex for your name. I'm sure you know that the Soundex is a partial index for the 1880 census. I included the Ed D. #'s just in case you wanted to look at the census yourself-would save you a lot of time.

Wish I could be of more help. Did find a listing of a will in Marion Co., Ga. for H.A. Jordan!! Listed in the book with wills between 1846-1915. Might be fun to see just what it says?

Good luck in your hunting.

Dear Irene:

Sorry I'm so pokey about answering your letter of the 3rd. I've been so wound up in tracing my Mother's line, had a break through, that I've neglected my correspondence.

I'm not familiar with the book you mentioned, Charles Wesley Jordan of Georgia. My Jordan line has completly frustrated me for some time. I've just stopped working on it, hoping that something would happen. So far, it hasn't!! This is the line:

1. Dan Boswell Jordan b. 1918 Warm Springs, Ga.

2. Enoch Pope Jordan b. 1886 Pike Co., Ga. m. Clifford Allene Boswell

3. John Thomas Jordan b. 1861 Pike Co., Georgia m. Nancy Lee Hooten

4. John Pope Jordan b. 1836 Ga. m. Nancy Matilda Barker

5. John T. Jordan b. 1806 m Mary J. Holmes

In 1850 Census of Pike Co., Ga., I find a Benjamine Jordan living with my John T. Jordan. Until proven different, I'm assuming that he is the father of my John T. But no will in Pike Co. for Benj. (my man dies in 1859) and Benj. is not listed in 1860 of Pike. He is listed in White's "Hist. Coll. of Ga." as an early settler of Pike-as a member of the grand jury of Pike County in 1826 and as head of a family in 1840 census. His (Benj.) family seems to have included his wife, a son and daughter-in-law or daughter and son-in-law and grandchildren and then he shows up in the home of my John T. Jordan.

I've checked the indices of Ga. 1820, 30, and 40. There are a number of Benjamins. Mildred Watkins of Shreveport and now Amarillo, Texas has been hired by a cousin of my husbands'(someone with money!) to try and clear up this matter. We correspond, but so far she hasn't come up with anything.

Perhaps, in your [illegible] Jordans you have something that will help with old John T. Interesting about your Sublett in Warren Co., Ky. One of my daughters married a Tygret(Tigert) and his line is Bowling Green, Ky.

Dear Friends:

I am on a genealogy "kick" and trying to complete an extensive genealogy on the "Jordan" clan. My mother was a Jordan descendant of Nathan Bartlett Jordan (lived Beloit, KS) and Timothy Jordan (Webster ME) and Abner Jordan (Lisbon ME) and Nathaniel Jordan (Spurwink ME) and Nathaniel Jordan (b. 1696 Spurwink ME) and Dominicus Jordan (b. about 1664 Falmouth ME) and Rev Robert Jordan (1613 Worcester, England) and Edward Jordan(Jordon) (Worcester England).

I have a partially complete ganealogy table back to Edward Jordan but need to fill in lots of gaps and also trace further back.

If you are interested in providing information on your family and exchanging information, I would be pleased to correspond further with you. As an incentive, I am enclosing a ditto form which can be used as a starter.

When I get this project completed, I would be pleased to furnish you a copy of the finished product.

I do know that there is one line which came from England and settled in Maine, another in Virginia and another in Georgia. I descended from the Maine branch.

Sincerely,

Melvin G. Geiser

encl: 2

P.S. If you have any genealogical literature on the "Jordan" clan, I would appreciate the loan of same or information on how I can buy my own copy.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I have received your postcard in a around the bout way! that you addressed to the Postmistress of Batson. As I do the genealogy in our family it was passed on to me.

I'm sorry I do not have any help for you, however I show in my files a Mildred S. Watkins - P. O. Box 1110 Shreveport, LA. 71120. who is looking for a Benjamin Jordan born ca 1776, and died after 1850 any place in GA.

Another I show is a W. A. Jordan, Rt. 1, Tulia, Tex., 79088. I beleive he is searching a Benjamin Jordan, but I'm not just sure what locality.

The Jordans in Hardin County is from three differant lines, and I am related to 2 lines. The first line is John Jordan, b. 1780/90, S.C. m. Mary Eliza Pellum (Pelham) they were living in Barnwell Co., S.C. then moved to Blakely & Early Counties Georgia before coming to Tylor Co., Tex 1852. by 1860s & 70s they were in Hardin County.

My Radford Jordan was found in Jackson County, Georgia in 1804, in 1808 he went to the Mississippi Territory (now Washington County, Ala.). by 1814 he was back in Jones Co., Ga. and in 1820 in Conecuh Co., ALA. (later became Covington Co.). in 1830,40/50/ he was in Covington Co., ALA. Radford died in 1840/50. His son Clark Middleton & family came to Chambers County between 1854/60. In 1870 they were in Honey Island, Hardin County, Texas.

The third set of Jordans (in which I know very little,) is a John P. Jordan b. ALA. m. Mary Chance, had two children; Elizabeth m. married a Barnes and Ezekial Jordan who married about three times. the children were born in MISS. they were in Tex. by 1860.

I wish I could be of more help, but I will keep you in my files and if I ever do come across a Benjamin or John T. Jordan from Pike County Georgia I will be glad to let you know, and if I can be of anymore help be sure and let me know and will be glad to share whatever material I might have with.
All best wishes in your genealogical endeavers..L.C. Corley

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I have received your postcard in a round the bush way that you subscribed to the Mintreesses of Gibson. As I do the genealogy in our family it was passed on to me.

I'm sorry I do not have any help for you, however I show in my files a Mildred S. Martin - PZ 0. Box 1110 Shreveport, LA. 71120. who is looking for a Benjamin Jordan born 1776, and died after 1850 any place in TA.

Another I show is a W. A. Jordan, Rt. 1, Zulia, Tex., 79039. I believe he is searching a Benjamin Jordan, but I'm not just sure what locality.

The Jordans in Hardin County is from three different lines, and I am related to 2 lines. The first line is John Jordan, b. 1780\90, S.C. m. Mary Allen Pellum (Pellum) they were living in Barnwell Co., S.C. then moved to Clarkly & early Counties Georgia before coming to Tyler Co., Tex 1852. by 1870s & 70s they were in Hardin County.

My Alford Jordan was found in Jackson County, Georgia in 1840. In 1850 he went to the Mississippi Territory (now Washington County, Ala.). By 1860 he was back in Jones Co., Ga. and in 1870 in Greenup Co., Ky. (Lives became Covington Co.). In 1870,80\90 he was in Covington Co., Ala. Alford died in 1890\90. His son Clark Middleton & family came to Grandpa County between 1895\00. In 1870 they were in Honey Island, Hardin County, Texas.

The third set of Jordans (in which I know very little.) is a John F. Jordan m. Ala. c. Mary Chance, had two children, Elizabeth m. married a Barnes and Daniel Jordan who married about three times. The children were born in Ala. they were in Tex. by 1870.

I wish I could be of more help, but I will keep you in my files and if I ever do come across a Benjamin or John T. Jordan from Pike County, Georgia I will be glad to let you know, and if I can be of anymore help be sure and let me know and will be glad to share whatever research I might have with.

Dear Ronald:

How very nice to hear from you! I'm so glad that you wrote to tell me about your marvelous break on the Jordans. Congratulations!! You do have a weak spot, but then who of us doesn't on these Problem lines? You'll stumble on the information one of these days when you are least looking for it. There is soo much just pure LUCK involved in this work.

I've always thought that my husband was connected with old Thomas of Chuckatuck, nothing but a hunch. Maybe some day I'll find that one clue.... I'm going to remember to enclose a chart on my Jordans, you may be able to help. Would really appreciate anything that you could do for me.

The Library is booming. We've had a new librarian now for almost a year. Mrs. Ulmer retired. I must say that this new woman is just a delight to work for and the patrons just love her. Can you imagine? We have, most every day, well over a hundred patrons. Isn't that terrible? It gets so noisy sometimes that I can't think. Miss Alcorn is well versed in Genealogy, been in the Houston System for 20 years, worked under Mrs. U. when she first started out. She has put in a xerox machine, has a radio playing soft music works with the patrons very closely. We, as usual, are having staff problems. Mrs. Brinley is still upstairs, with a part time helper; Mrs. Stokes retired; Mrs. Boucher moved to Arizona; Marje Harris,(the pretty, young girl has been gone for the past two summers, getting her Masters in Library Science) will be back soon, which will help. We still have Gayle Bogley, full time.

The Library, I know, should be interested in receiving your Augusta Gen. Journal, if you mean it as a gift of your old ones. Rather or not we could subscribe, I would have to ask Maxine Alcorn. Is there a chance you could put a query in for me?

Do keep in touch and I WILL call you if my husband and I get to Georgia next fall, as we are planning. I too got a break through on my side of the family, Mosher/Stanton. Took a trip, by myself, to Salt Lake, and got to do research for 8 hours a day straight!! Heaven! Stayed two weeks, and up to my eyeballs in Dutch ancestors. New York, N. Jersey, Conn. There is so much already done for you, when you have New England people.

Must close and get a chart for you.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

Just thought I'd write a line and tell you that I finally have solved my Jordan "problem". At least I have done all that I think is possible.

You may be interested to know that I do tie my Jordans of Washington County GA into Thomas of Chuckatuck. The key came when I finally identified the father of Jacob. Remember the problems I was having? Anyway, the key came when I talked to a Jordan descendant in Sandersville, Wash. Co. GA. You may have noticed that I am back in Georgia. The father of Jacob was ASA and once I knew that, the previous three generations were supplied by this Jordan in Sandersville.

The other piece of evidence came by a comparison of first names. The name Cornelius was given to at least five generations of Jordans. The fact that the best friend of a Joshua Jordan (son of Thomas of Chuckatuck) was Cornelius Ratcliffe and that this Ratcliffe married Joshua's widow to me is an almost conclusive piece of evidence. It is also known that Joshua's descendants moved into Edgecombe Co. NC from whence came the Jordans of Washington Co.

You can see that some of the evidence is ciucumstantial, but given the lack of records, I don't think I will ever tie it down more conclusively.

How are things back there in Houston? I couldn't take the rat race any more and moved back to GA. I have a job teaching in a large high school in suburban Augusta. I am very excited about getting the position.

Well, I'll close now. If there is anything I can do for you here concerning genealogy, please let me know. I am a member of the Augusta Genealogical Society. We have numerous members in Texas because so many Texans came from Georgia. The Clayton Library may be interested in receiving our Journal. If so, let me know. If you are ever in this neck of the woods, please give me a call.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Jordan:

Excuse the delay in answering your letter.

I do not believe that my husband's lineage connects with Rev. Robert Jordan...but then I'm not sure. If the following information does seem to be of that line, please advise and I will be happy to -furnish any information that I might have. I enclose a SASE for your reply.

Enoch Pope Jordan (pronounced Jourdan)b1886 Pike Co.Ga. son of...

John Thomas Jordan b 1861 Pike Co., Ga. m Nancy Lee Hooten--son of..

John Pope Jordan b 1836 Georgia m Nancy Matilda Barker..son of....

John T. Jordan b 1806 Georgia m Mary J. Holmes....son of...

Benjamin Jordan (I think!!) b 1776 probably one of the Carolinas

I eagerly await your reply. There are just too many Benjamin Jourdans in Georgia to continue on back. Perhaps you will be able to give me the link. I sure hope so.

Sincerely,

P.S. Good luck in your desire to bring The Jordan Memorial up to date. If you ever publish, let me know. I'll buy it.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

I ask that you excuse this form letter, but it is being used as a matter of expediency.

In 1880 Tristram Frost Jordan published the The Jordan Memorial, concerning the Rev. Robert Jordan and his descendants. In the one hundred years since its publication these descendants have multiplied many times.

I am attempting to continue this line of descendants from as many progeny as possible. Also, as new information is uncovered, to correct and/or add new information concerning any of the 6,000 names contained in the original.

I am contacting as many people as possible who may have information which would aid in this task. Whether your surname is, or was, Jordan or not, if you or anyone you know has an ancestry going back to Jordan, anywhere or anytime, I would appreciate hearing from you. I am looking for names, dates, marriages, births, etc. along with other events that have influenced their lives.

Your kind assistance in any way possible will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

I always have a terrible feeling of frustration when people are so good to send me information I request and then in return, not being able to help them. Such a feeling exists in your case.

Although I am accumulating a large amount of data, much of which I cannot use, I always check it to try to help anyone who asks. All of the Benjamins I have seem to be of no help. I have checked all of the names in you letter and with the following exception , have been unsuccessful.

The closest I can come is: Lt. Benjamin Jordan of N.C. b. 1754, d. 1786. M. Elicabeth_____. This I found in the DAR patriot index.

Your information has been added to my files and should anything turn up in the future, Ill keep you informed.

I'm putting your chart and information in a file and will refer to it each time I get a Jordan letter.....maybe we will be able to find another poor soul that is working on this line and compare notes. Sure hope so.

Dear Mr. Jordan:

It seems that my husband and I missed you by about 2 weeks, or so Mr. Phil Jordan of Montecello, GA. tells us.

Phil claims that you and my husband looked or fawored each other and that peaked my interest.

Would you consider exchanging information of these elusive Jordans?

My husband, Dan Boswell Jordan(Jourdan) was born in Warm Springs, GA. but was raised in Molena, Pike Co., GA. His father was Enoch Pope Jordan and mother Clifford Boswell, ~~his father~~ ... the father of Enoch was John Thomas Jordan, his father was John Pope Jordan and his father, John T. Jordan b 1806 in Ga. m Mary J. Holmes, dau of James C. Holmes.

You may have already been contacted by either Mrs. Mildred Watkins, a certified genealogist working for N. O. Thomas of Louisiana about this Jordan family. Mr. Thomas, a cousin, has spent a great deal of money on this research and we are still stuck, where I mentioned above.

If this is your line, please contact me and perhaps we can help each other with our families.

I'll be looking for your letter.

Dear VIVIAN JORDAN;

It was a delight to get your letter of October 15th. I have been on a trip to Georgia and did not get to answer it before I left.

You are right! And what elusive JORDANS they are! Frankly I have been 'stuck' for sometime on my Jordan line and have just started renewed instrest in pursuing it this summer. I am very active in the Sons of the American Revolution and the South Carolina Genealogical Society. My pursuit on other lines had been so profitable that somehow I just let my Jordan line go when it seemed I had run into a dead end.

We are in the same area of Georgia! According to my father (he died in 1963 at age 88) his grandfather, William B. Jordan, came to middle Georgia with an uncle of his. I am sending you my lineage chart which shows that I go back only to my great grandfather Jordan. He moved to Sumter County, Georgia from the Baldwin-Jasper County area ca 1840. I made a trip to Montecello this summer trying to establish a base upon which I can work. Because of family illnesses, I have not been able to do much more but now that things are better, I am going to try to 'locate some of these Jordans'.

Would you share what dates you have on this line with me? I will be going back to Georgia soon for research and I want all information I can get. If we are not of the same line, we may be of related lines.

I do hope that we can share with one another and help get our Jordan line documented.

Thanks for writing me.

Sincerely,

Lynwood

I do believe that yours is the first 'answer' that I've ever received from an ad in the Helper!! I stopped doing that many years ago, as you can see...1977!!

I checked my records and also the Jordan book by Perry and there is no connection that I could find. Mrs. Perry has two Josiah's in the Index, both dates not at all as recent as your 1860.

We happen to have the 1860 GA census Index so I zeroxed the enclosed pages, just in case you did not have access to this index. Hope that it helps.

I'll put your family group sheet in my files for any future reference.

I have a John T. Jordan b 1806 GA? who m 27 Sep 1828 in Pike Co.,GA Mary Jane Holmes (father was James C. Holmes).
John T. died 26 Sep 1859 Pike Co., GA.

In the 1850 census of Pike Co., GA Dist #68 pg 129 family #92 is my John Jourdan and family with a 'Benjamin' 74 yrs..no place of birth.

I can find nothing that says that he is the father of John Jourdan. Mrs. Mildred Watkins, now deceased, has worked on this problem for a cousin of my husband's, for many years. She never could solve it. She had a Genealogical newspaper column in the Baton Rouge, I believe, newspaper for years. But then moved to Tyler,TX several years ago.

I don't want to leave any stone unturned so I'm asking if you might look through your papers and see if you happen to have proof of this relationship. Dr. Alle gave me a copy of your Benjamin Jordan,Jr. of Henrico Co., VA papers.

My husband was born in Molena, GA. Pike Co. and his father Enogh Pope was the station master for the railroad. Enoch's father was John Thomas Jordan, his father was John Pope killed at Richmond, VA 1862. John Pope' father was John T.(never have found it written as Thomas) .

I enclosed a SASE and await your reply with great anxiety!!

Dear Rosalyn:

How very thorough you are!! I didn't mean for you to go to all that trouble and research...you are a perfect example of the wonderful people that you meet (throughletters) when you do genealogicalresearch.

I'm fortunate that I have the Clayton Genealogical Library here in Houston. They have an super collection.

Please don't bother checking the Hollingsworth Collection. CL has it.

Again my heartfelt thanks for your time and effort. I hope I can return the favor some day.

Some day we will all have solved our ancestor problems (HA) and then we will be hunting for another line to start on!!

If you're ever in Houston, give me a call.

Sincerely,

Dear Vivian,

I waited to answer your letter so that I would have a chance to go to a library and look for answers to your problem. I checked Folks Huxford's personal notes on Jordans that he researched and did not find your names. His research was confined to what he called "Wiregrass Georgia" which was south central Georgia. Pike County is not included in that area.

I checked my own "These Jordans were Here," by Octavia Jordan Perry 1969. Mrs. Perry was a second cousin to my mother, so I was lucky to find my line in her book. In that line the names Thomas and Benjamin are used over and over, so it seems that your line certainly could have come from there. In the book she tells about Benjamin, Sr. son of Thomas of Chuckatuck and Margaret Brashere but does not explain what happened to Benjamin, Jr.'s son, Benjamin. I don't have any information on him except he is the s/o Benjamin, Jr. and Lydia Pleasants. Actually this is the vaguest point in my own line with Thomas Pleasants Jordan who married the d/o John Marshall.

In the GA Tax Digest in 1798 a Benjamin Jordan was listed in Oglethorpe County, Duke Dist., p. 043; Also in 1798 there was a Benjamin in Burke County, 4th Dist., p. 003b (a John was also listed in the same 4th Dist.) Benjamin was listed in Oglethorpe, Duke Dist. p. 035 in 1800; in 1809 Benjamin was listed in Greene County, Gill Dist. p. 049; Benjamin was in Morgan County, Lenard Dist. p. 011 in 1814-1817. There was no Benjamin in the 1804-1806 Tax Digest. A Benjamin Jordan drew 2 blanks in the 1805 Land Lottery in Burke County. No Benjamin was listed in the reconstructed 1790 GA Census. That was all I was able to come up with I hope it will be a little help to you.

Did you know that the Georgia Archives will do a limited amount of research for you? You can ask 1 question per letter on such subjects as wills, land records, marriages, Civil War records, etc. You don't send money, they will let you know the amount to send if the record is available. Their address is:

Georgia Department of Archives and History
330 Capitol Avenue SE
Atlanta, Georgia 30334

Their Family Exchange File is available to researchers during the normal hours of operation. Archives staff will search this file for mail requests and provide copies of up to 12 cards on one surname for $2.00. Enclose a SASE for this service and direct inquiry to attn. of Family Exchange. You can ask for cards to put your surnames on if you want to.

Sorry I couldn't be of more help.

Sincerely,

Rosaly Sumner

I will keep your letter on file and if I learn any more will let you know. I just thought of a Hollinsworth File that I can check taken from notes of another GA researcher.

This is all I know on "my" Benjamin Jordans. Ben, Sr. was b. 18 Jul 1674 in Nansemond Co. VA, m. 1707 and d. Dec 1714. He m. Sarah Robinson who also m. a James Bates. Ben was a Quaker minister. Many of the records were destroyed so info is limited. His will probated 8 Dec 1715 in Henrico Co. Courthouse.

Ben, Jr. m. Lydia Pleasants 6 Oct 1741. He died 25 Feb 1778. They had a son, Benjamin, but I have no info on him.

If Dr. Allee did not give you this name to contact, you may want to write him. I have known him all my life and he has researched Jordans in GA. My research started in NC since my parents moved to GA after they married.

Mr. John Jordan

307 James Avenue

Ashburn, GA 31714

John and I grew up in the same neighborhood and our families were friends. My mother always joked with them that we were related. John and I have made that connection and are very excited about it. I'm sure he'll help you if he can.

Dear Vivian,

I read with interest your bio sketch in the CLF Newsletter. There were so many coincidences that I simply had to write.

First, my daughter, Kerri McClatchy-Hogue, danced with the Houston Ballet for the last 9 or 10 years. She retired at the ripe age of 29 this year to start a family.

My genealogical research encompasses some names familier to you. Though it may not all be the same families, there are several possible lines. While researching Foster, I came across Jordan, Barker in Virginia. While researching Jackson, I found Hill in Alabama. I am sending some copies of group sheets. May be that we can connect.

Dear Mary:

With all our similiar surnames, surely there must be a connection!!!

Frankly I couldn't find one, but then who knows? Maybe down the road a bit, one will show up. These families traveled in groups and their kids marriage etc.,etc.

My husband's Jordans (Jourdan) line stayed in GA but a sister to one of his Jordans married a Beckham and they moved to East TX. around Shelbyville, TX. N.O. Thomas, a cousin, has a lovely summer place called Welcome Hall just outside of Shelbyville.

Wish I could get my Benjamin Jordan out of Georgia...fairly sure that they connect with Thomas Jourdan of Chuckatuck...but can't prove it!

I've never regretted leaving ballet, I had decided that I really didn't have the bull-dog determination to continue. Hope your daughter doesn't reap the results of the falls that I took as a dancer that I have. Osteo arthritis has really set in but at least I'm still moving.

Your records are on file. Keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Vivian H. Jordan

Dear Bettie:

How I wish our Jordans matched up but I'm sorry nothing seems to jibe. My husbands people were in Pike Co.,GA for generations before that they were (I think) in Jasper Co., a Benjamin Jordan is where I'm stuck.

Many, many folk have worked on this Benjamin (there were 4 or 5 in the same area around the same time!!). We have all hit the old brick wall.

I'll put your records on my computer and maybe another peice of the puzzle will fall in my lap and I will be pleased to let you know.

Good Hunting!!

Dear Ms Garrett:

In trying to catch up on my correspondence, I found my notation that you were researching the Jordan/Pope line. No clue as to where I found this or when...so I'm taking my chances and hope that you are still at this same address.

My husband's people were in Pike Co., GA from c1830 'til now. But I cannot get the Jordans (pronounced Jourdan) out of GA.!!

In the 1850 Census, I find his grt grt grandfather, John T. Jordan and family with a 74 yr old man named Benjamin Jourdan...no birth placelisted.

John T. b 1806 m Mary J/C Holmes dau/ James C. Holmes. James C.'s wife was Rebecca Pope b 1788 in Wilkes Co., GA.

John T. and Mary Holmes named their son John Pope, b 1836 in GA and d 1862 Richmond, VA. John Pope Jourdan had m Nancy Matilda Barker 1855.

John Pope and Nacy had a son named John Thomas b 1861; he m Nancy Lee Hooten.

I believe, no proof, that Benjamin was the father of our John T. and came through Jasper Co.,GA on his way to Pike Co.. Lots of people have worked on this line and periodically I try to get some new leads.

Hopefully you will be the one who has some missing pieces to this puzzle.

I would be pleased to exchange any info that I have, if it would help.

Enclosed is a SASE for your convenience.

Dear Sandy:

Sorry to be so long in answering your query of 29 Jan.

I do not see any connection with your Jordans and my husband's but thenn one never knows in this business of researching.

The 'proven' Jordan on the Jordan line is John Thomas Jordan b 1806 GA, prob. Pike Co. and d 1859 Pike Co., GA. In the 1850 census of Pike Co., GA there is a Benjamin Jordan, 74 yrs which until I have proven differently, is prob. his Father. Unfortunately, there is no place of birth filled in, so from other records, my "feeling" no proof whatsoever...is that his branch comes from the Thomas Jordan of Chuckatuck. Well documented Quaker.

Sorry, but I'm no help. Your record will be kept on file for who knows, it might fit later on down the road.

By the way, a family trait or insistance I guess I should say is that the name is pronounced, as if it were spelled...'Jourdan'. I always check that spelling in the indexes. Branches of my husbands family came on through MS into East TX and the name is pronounced in East TX as Jourdan!!

Good Luck in your research.

Dear Dorothy:

How I wish I knew something about old Benjamin Jordan to tell you!! There is a certified genealogist named Mildred Watkins who was and may still be working on this problem of who was the father of the Benjamin Jordan, b ca 1776 who was enumerated with my John Thomas Jordan, in Pike Co., GA in 1850.

There are so many Benj. Jordans (pronounced Jourday, by the way) that we have yet to clear the way and prove one way or the other about just which is ours.

I've run across a Green Jordan, but I've run through my files and can't seem to pick it up. I'm in the process, if I live long enough of putting my records on file in my computer. This is a perfect example of why...my memory tells me one thing but I can't put my finger on the reference.

I do know that the names Sterling or Green do not run in our branch, that is always a good sign.

I will put your letter on file, and if I find anything else of any value, I will certainly let you know.

Good luck with your search.

Dear Vivian,

I'm writing regarding family history. I'm a member of the Augusta Geneology Society and found your name at the Geneology Library in Augusta, Ga. I noticed that you were researching a Benjamin Jordan c 1776 N.C., Died c 1855 Ga.

My great, great grandfather was Sterling Green Jordan born 1810 in N.C., died 1883 in Jefferson County, Ga. I don't know who my Sterling's father was, but I do know his mother was Elizabeth and he had a brother Thomas G.

I was wondering if your Benjamin could have been my Sterling's father's brother. I was told our Jordans came from Wayne County, N.C.

Would appreciate hearing from you & getting any help you might offer.

Dear Katholeen:

I'm sorry for the delay in answering your letter, I have been out of town.

I can find no connection between your family of Jordans and my husband's family of Jordans, but I will keep your information on file just in case.

From your letter it didn't seem that you had much more information that what you gave me, so I did a little research for you at our excellent Genealogical Library here in Houston.

In the 1850 Census of Jefferson Co., Ga. I found:

Sterling Greene Jordan, 42 years, Farmer, born in Jefferson Co.,Ga.
Sarah A. (wife) 32 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
William A. 15 yrs., b Jefferson Co., GA.
James 13 yrs. b. Jefferson Co., Ga.
Thomas 10 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Ann 8 yrs., b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Robert 6 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Edwin 4 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Bathshaba 3 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Sarah F. 11/12 (11 mos. old), b Jefferson Co., Ga.

Very close by in the 1850 Census of Jefferson Co., Ga. I found:

Thomas G. Jordan 49 yrs. b Wayne Co., N. C.
Sarah 42 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
James M. 20 b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Sarah E. 18 b "
Frances E. 16 b "
Mary 14 yrs. b "
Martha 10 b "
Amazon 12 b "
Thomas J. 8 b "
Ganzada 5 (female) b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Henry R. 3 yrs. b "

I think that this was probably a brother to your Sterling. So you see your next bet is to look in Wayne Co., N. C. for the Jordans. Aren't you lucky that the census taker decided to put down the county where everyone was born? That doen't happen too often.

In the 1820 Census of Jefferson Co., Ga. I found:

Sterling Greene Jordan, 16 years, farmer, born in Jefferson Co.
Baron M. (Male) 22 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
William A. 15 yrs., b Jefferson Co., Ga.
James 12 yrs. b. Jefferson Co., Ga.
Thomas 10 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Ann 8 yrs., b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Robert 6 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Edwin 4 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Catharine 2 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Sarah T. 11/12 (11 mos. old), b Jefferson Co., Ga.

Very close by in the 1820 Census of Jefferson Co., Ga., I found:

Thomas G. Jordan 19 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Sarah 24 yrs. b Jefferson Co., Ga.
James M. 20 b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Sarah 18 b "
Frances E. 16 b "
Mary 14 yrs. "
Martha 10 b "
Amanda 12 b "
Thomas 1. b "
Amanda 5 (female) b Jefferson Co., Ga.
Mary 3 yrs. b

Dear Kathleen, that sounds like probably a brother to your Sterling. Do you see your name? It is too long to write Co., Ga. for the 1820 Census, you know, that the census takers decided to put down the county. Jefferson County, Georgia, was formed from Ga.

I also found the cemetery listing for the following:

Edward Pridgen Jordan 1845-1879
Josephine Jordan age 14 yrs.

Sterling Green Jordan 1810-1883
Sarah Parker Jordan 1812-1853

2 unmarked graves.

Dear Mrs. Jordan,

Since you are from N.C., I feel you might be Kin to me.

I took my Mother to N.C., not long before she died in 1959. I Can't remember the names of the Jordans or the name of the Town in N.C. We also went by a Lady's house in Wilmington and I took some pictures. I think the name of the Town was Rocky Point, N.C.

My Mother's house burned to the ground in 1965 and all pictures and papers got burned up.

My Mother was born in Miss. Her Mother was Mary Elizabeth Graham Her Father was Edwin Pridgeon Jordan. Her Moth died with Typhoid fever and left the two youngest with their Grandparents Graham Her Father brought her back to Georgia to his ~~Fa~~ Fathe plantation between August and Louisville, Ga. His Father was Sterling Green Jordan. His Mother Sarah Ann Parker had died in 1853. One Aunt Mattie was living at home then Mother was 4½. When she was 9 her Dady Edwin P. Jordan died with Typhoid fever also. Then when Mother was 11 her Grand father out horseback riding had a heart attack and died. Then Mother went to live with her Aunt Mattie at Louisville, Ga. She had Married a Houry Murphy, who was Clerk of Court in Louisville. My Mother lived with them until she married my father William Tyson. My Mother + Father had 6 children. I'd like to know if my Grand father had any more Bros and sisters and their names + ages if possible

I heard one of my Grand father's Bros went to College and then got killed in the Civil war.

I wish I had set down all about the Jordans at the time Mother use to tell us, but I didn't.

Sterling Greene Jordan Edwin P. Jordan, Sarah Ann Parker Jordan and some more are buried on the plantation across from the house, I've been there. Mother put some Tomb-stones on some of the graves road

Also she had the Cemetary there cleaned off every year until she died.

I've told you all I remember, but I'm bad at remembering names.

I've been wanting to go back to Rocky Point, N.C. and ask some questions. My health is bad. I will be 76 Sunday the 26th.

I do hope you are kin to those at Rocky Point and also to me.

Isn't it strange you live on Hawthorne St., and I live on Hawthorne Rd.?

I feel we are Kin. What Kin? Can you tell me?

Lots of Love, Katholeen

Miriam let us read your letter she received Saturday. Ben & I were talking about the information you want, and happened to think about John Thomas Pickerton. He knows so much about sick, they had to take her to the hospital, we were both down + couldn't help. Henry kept going but had a relapse, but everybody seems to be doing fine. Don't I we dragging, you know when you get "old" you don't bounce back as quick!! Course you all don't know that yet!

Dear Vivian

Claire received your letter yesterday and wants me to tell you all that we know about the name Pope. Our grandfather Dan's great grandfather was named John Pope Jordan — who married Nancy Matilda Barber Dan's sister Polly, has only one name Polly. This is not a family name as far as we know.

The Jordans came from Wilkes Co. Georgia and you might be able to get more infamation from Wilkes Co. Court House than we copied from the Jordan Family Bible.

Sorry to hear about Nana's continued illness. Hope she soon will be strong and active.

Clarice is still quite sick of her Heart Ailment. She is in bed most of the time. Dr. Grubbs comes to see her nearly every day.

We have my sister, Evelyn, with me now, which means lots of consolation.

First week of December we had some bitter cold weather, which I do not like.

glad you folks can make your visits to Georgia during the summer season.

My regards to you and each member of your family, and many good wishes for a Happy New Year 1963.

Lovingly,

Edna R.

P.S. John Pope Jordan Our Grand Father.

My dear Vivian & Dan & the girls! How wonderful to get a letter from you and to know all is fine with you! But I'm sorry to say I don't have a shred of information on this "family tree" business — but I am sending you a Georgia map and have circled the Bolingbroke, Ga with a red pencil — do hope you can find something there. as for newspapers — the county papers don't seem to have much news about people, but you might put an ad in the Pike County Journal, Zebulon, Ga. 30295 and somebody might be of help to you. do hope your jewelry business will continue to be successful — and with such personalities I am sure it will be; really, I mean that! So glad the girls are happy in their work — and where will Sherry go to school this fall — congratulations to her and the High School Honors! Like her father — I can hear ole Dan in the big oak tree at the tennis court proclaiming to all who would listen, his valedictory speech, while Richard hurries to milk the cow! Then a tennis game. Claire is one of 400 High School students from over the state to attend an 8 weeks summer session (state-paid expenses) at Wesleyan (Macon) — the Governor's Honors Program. Claire & Nancy (Jane's) will be seniors next year — and Nancy will be on the annual staff! Jane is teaching in Morgan County High School — and the 3 children are in school! Richard & Harriette have their 4 in school and Chas & Helen have 1 in school — it will be 2 more years before their baby will start. Of course grandpa and grandma aren't getting any older! Enoch is watching the TV Braves play ball in Houston. Effie Mae Riggins is in the nursing home here (the school house converted) and Shad Bartlett is there, too! Mr. Bennett is mighty feeble but still at home. Well, now, it was good to hear from you — and I may never have any information you want or need on that "tree"; but we will always be so pleased for a note or letter and will be so interested in each member of the family. If I do find anything I will certainly let you know.

Dear Audrey:

I hope that this finds you feeling much better. I really do appreciate the effort to send me those records. You sent me a great deal more than you realized!!

No one had ever told me the middle name of Enoch M. Hooten! Nor the middle name of his wife---so you see, inadvertantly you were a really big help to me. 'Course I haven't had time to concentrate too much on the Hooten-Shaw side of the Jordan line. I do know that Enoch Hootens' father was named James Hooten from Va. and his wife was a Susannah Kidd from N. C.

I have the Jordan line back to a Benjamin Jordan-probably of Troup Co., Ga. (not positive) who was born about 1775 (where?)

If it isn't too much bother, would you fill in the blanks on the enclosed piece of paper? You completely neglected your lineage!

Take care of yourself,

Love, Vivian
Vivian

I'd be glad to send you a "Jordan" chart - if you'd like.

I would like a chart if you can spare one

1977 Charts are in Jordan Doc. file

Dear Aunt Vivian -

I found this information sheet filed away somewhere and decided you'd like it, though late. I've asked my mom to fill in the missing names and dates on her grandparents and great grandparents. I think she knows them for that far back. My father is doing some looking into his parents too. As I get more info, I'll pass it on to you.

In your searchings, have you come upon any Risdons? My stepfather is looking for a missing link or two in his chain. If you know anything, please let me know.

How is your family doing? Is Masonry still keeping you and Uncle Dan busy?

The children are growing - Elyse is much like the Christopher you remember. She has a real sense of humor and is a pixie - super-tiny. She finally weighs 20 lb. - at 2 years and 3 mo. Christopher is bright as can be, reading very well and loving school and all there is to learn. He is active and happy and inquisitive, and we feel quite blessed!

Rick's job is far from an ideal situation, and he is actively seeking a more rewarding job. Unfortunately, there are very few openings in his profession, so he'll probably remain here a while longer. Virginia is a lovely place to live for a while. There is so much to see and do, and things bloom and grow beautifully. The climate in Norfolk is much like Houston; hot and humid in the summers, but colder in winter than your Gulf climate.

Mom J. was here in March for 5 very pleasant days. She is very healthy and seems happy enough. She's still teaching kindergarten, and I just hope I'm half as active at 63 as she is!

We haven't seen Dan and friends since November, but they were all fine then. Their children are getting so grown up - Danny is 15 already! They have much to be proud of.

I am looking for a job for the fall, hoping to get back into LD teaching or something in work w/ the handicapped. Jobs there are scarce too.

I met a girl here whose name is Denise Boswell. Her husband's name is and she says he's from Texas and that their family has a big reunion every year. Are we all related, and how closely?

I'm going to close for now. Take care and enjoy your day.

Our thoughts and love

Dear Freddy:

Well, I hate to tell you this but.... I received your package a wee bit late. Don't know exactly when it arrived but Dan found what he thought was some loose paper that had blown on to our yard. But, it was your envelope....very wet, all torn apart and the doddle bugs where enjoying the adventure of running in and out!!! I'm ehclosing the remains of the order to the Ga Archives for the obit. At first I thought that the shower of what looked like pieces of paper, was that some varmint had chewed on the paper while it was out in the yard...but no it was just the microfilm paper shedding. I enclose the remains!!

I'm so sorry abbut the pictures and the obit. Were they your originals??? I sure hope not. The picture of Nancy R. Barker will pass, most of the damage is in the lower section of the picture but not the one of John Pope and Nancy... it is messed up good all through the faces. Dan said to tell you that some where in Baxter's house is a single picture of John Pope Jordan. If you have another copy, I'll make a copy from that if you will let me...of the two I mean. Baxter keeps saying that he doesn't remember one of John P. by himself, but we saw it!

I've run off these charts for you to see just how we fit in the scheme of things. From your chart, I'm going to see if I can't find something else out for your on the lines other than Jordan and Pope. We have so much in our Library, in fact there was a gift that I had just sent to Central Library for cataloging, on the Cottles. People from all over the Nation give us Family Histories. I will have to wait until it gets back from Central before I can look in it to see if I can connect for you.

I'm writing to the Ga Archives for a copy of the obit on N.Barker. Since I have the reference numbers, it will be no problem.

Sure do hope that we can crack this Jordan problem.

Keep in touch!

Dear Vivian,

I thoroughly enjoyed our recent conversation and hope we will be able to help each other on the Jordan and related lines. I've enclosed a copy of my lineage chart. I'm sure there are errors in it so if if you see any glaring ones please let me know. Obviously I ran out of room on the Fullilove line so I had to start on another sheet. I included this line so you could note the Popes. Both of my father's parents are descended from Popes that came from Wilkes Co., Ga but I have not been able to connect the two. Do you know anything of our Rebecca Pope Holmes parents? A good deal has been written about my grandfather's Pope line in a book entitled The Hills of Wilkes Co, Ga. & Allied Families by Lodowick Johnson Hill. I have a copy of the book. Just about all the info I have on this 2d lineage chart came from this book. I've included a copy of Rebecca Holmes obituary. It is very interesting but unfortunately it gives no clues to her lineage.

I decided to go ahead & send you the copy I made of John & Nancy Barber Jordan's photograph. I'd guess it was taken about 1860. The other picture is Nancy Barber Jordan in her later years. Date unknown.

I started writing this letter last night and received your letter today. I certainly do appreciate you sending Cooper's research paper. It's very informative.

I will continue to work on our Benjamin Jordan when time permits. With two small children my time is limited. but who knows maybe I'll be lucky enough to find the missing clues.

Thanks again for the information. Hope you can find the pen sketch.

Best Wishes
Freddey

25 Jan 1986

Dear Fred:

A very quick note to get this 'Holmes' record of Homer Coopers in the mail. I've made a quick check of my Jordan Records and didn't find the Homes Pen Sketch but when I have more time, I will search thoroughly. If I still don't find it, I'll speak to Mildred Watkins and get it from her.

I'll also be sending you anything that I might have on some of these 'misc' Benj.Jordans. Something I have might tie in with what ever you have. Who knows?

Once again, I was so pleased to speak with you. I just do not have the time, anymore, to really concentrate and do a good job of research on the Jordans. Maybe you will be the one to solve this puzzle that has plagued us older searchers for so long.

If you think of anything that I might be able to look at for you in our Library, let me know.

More later.

Dear Vivian Jordan,

Phil and Glover Jordan of Jasper County, Georgia gave me your name and address. It is my understanding that you were looking for Jordans in Georgia in relationship to a Benjamin Jordan. It has been three years so you are probably way ahead of me. Phil and Glover are in direct line from Fleming Jordan, and we are of his brother Wortie-mer Jordan of the Broad River Settlements and Birmingham, Alabama.

When I was looking for the Jasper Jordans I kept stumbling over Benjamin. If I remember correctly a Benjamin Jordan and his wife Elizabeth were on the microfilm in the library in Brunswick and were listed in Jasper County. It may be an error as it it the Census of 1850 and he was listed as being 71 years old at the time, I believe.

When the Jordans and the Harvies left Oglethorpe County one branch went to Milledgeville, Georgia. I do not know if THE Benjamin Jordan of "Westover," which the book of that name is written about, is of that family. I did see a copy of Benjamin JORDAN of Westover in the Savannah library. I'm sure you must have the books.

My mother used to visit her Virginia cousins, the Misses Jordans at Ft. Boykin on the James. They were members of St. Luke's, the old Brick Church, in Isle of Wight County, Virginia, and mother was present at the "Thomas Jordan Day Celebration" on May 28, 1966 at this church. Thomas Jordan, the Quaker, did have a son, Benjamin - one of his 10 sons. Is this the one you have traced?

Mother was the one who knew about the family and, for about seven years before her death, several young men in the family began to seek her help in getting the family together. I really had little interest in doing so until I did promise them to help. Of course, as you can see, I have done little else. The Reunion is in June in Decatur, Alabama, my former home before my parents moved to Nashville, Tennessee.

There is a fascinating story in the family concerning one of Mortimer Jordan's grandsons which I would like to write this story for younger family members at the Reunion. I am an English teacher. The books, Mortimer Jordan Pioneer, by Mittie Owen and Rose Maclaird (Mrs. Geo) gives this account:" William Oscar Jordan married Jennie C. Norris. They left Birmingham and moved to Paris, Texas, and from there to the Indian Territory before it became the State of Oklahoma. Later they pushed on to the far West and to New Mexico, where they "homesteaded" and naturally founded a community and post office named Jordan and where they still reside."

VIRGINIA CALVIN HOBSON

Since there is no longer a post office in Jordan, Texas, I keep running into a blind alley. Several of their children lived in Clovis, New Mexico and Harold, Texas. In Harold they were the Charles Stringer and Willis Stringer families. James O. Jordan, who was the postmaster and merchant in Jordan, New Mexico, does have a bit about him in the Archives but not enough to locate his children, if such there be. If you ever run across anything about them, please let me know. It would be such fun to have it for the younger children — a little book all of their own.

I'm so interested in your research and will try to find out more about Benjamin Jordan of West-over. I'm so glad Phil gave me your name.

Cordially,
Virginia (Hobson)

Dear Mrs. Hobson:

How nice of Phil Jordan to give my address to you! Do give my husband's and my very best to both, Phil and Glover when next to talk with them. We so enjoyed our short visit with them a few years ago.

Unfortunately, I haven't worked on the Jordan line for quite some time. I hope to retire in '89 and then I will knuckle down and see if I can't solve our problem of just too many Benjamins(Jordans) running around in Jordan that just might be the father of our John Thomas Jordan b 1806 GA.

There are some related Jordans here in TX in Northeast Tx. but my husband's direct line did not come to TX. except long enough for his mother to be born in Mansfield, TX and then the family went on back to GA.

I have a'feeling' that the line is connected, distantly, with the Fleming Jordans. The Flemings and the Jordans, intermarried way back there, two brother & sister sets, married each other. No wonder it is so confusing sometimes to sort things out. A male Fleming marries a Jordan and then a female Fleming marries a male Jordan...good grief!

Our John Thomas Jordan b 1806 in Ga. married Mary J. Holmes (daughter of James C. Holmes). A Benjamin Jordan is living with my John Thomas Jordan in the 1850 census of Pike Co., GA and he is 74 years old. That is where we are stopped. It is probably the father of John T. but we can't find real proof of this.

Thanks for writing and if you can think of anything or record that might show this, please let me know!!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Vivian H. Jordan(Dan B.)

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I'm sorry to be so pokey about getting this letter written. Your kindness to my husband and myself when we dropped into your furniture store in September of last year, was true Southern hospitality.

I've followed every lead that you gave me in researching my husband's particular Jordan line but so far nothing has come up to help us in this research. Even wrote the man that you said we had just missed, who had also been researching the Jordans, but his line just isn't ours.

Could you possible ask your friend, Mr. Powell, a few questions for us? He may have some material in his files that would give us a little clue. I hope his health is improved.

To recap my husband's line: Dan was raised in Molena,Pike Co., GA., his father was the station master for the SP railroad, Enoch Pope Jordan. His father was John Thomas Jordan, b 1861, Pike Co.; his father was John Pope Jordan b 1836 Ga.,m Nancy Matilda Barker(dau of Thomas and Therese Barker). John Pope was killed in THE WAR. his father was John T. Jordan b 1806 Ga. who married Mary J.Holmes(dau of James C. Holmes..a well researched line).

With John T.(1806) is where we are stuck. On 1850,Pike Co.Ga. census, John T. is listed,with family, and a Benjamin, aged 74 yrs. no listing of his birth place. We can only hope that this is the father of our John T. but no one can find anything out about this Benjamin...there are so many in that area at the right time. Please see if Mr. Powell could help us? I'm enclosing a self-addressed,stamped envelope for him, i f he cares to write.

I hope that this New Year of 1985 brings you and Glover all the very best. Again our thanks and appreciation for your kindnesses when we were in Monticello

DEAR HENRY:

I'M SORRY THAT I DIDN'T GET TO SEE YOU ON OUR QUICK VISIT TO MOLENA BUT GLAD THAT YOUR 'UNCLE' DAN DID. I'M SURE THAT HE MADE A GOOD STORY OF ALL THE CEMETERIES THAT I DRUG HIM THROUGH AND ABOUT HIS THEORIES ON JUST HOW THE JORDANS BEGAN AND BEGAT IN THIS WORLD. I KEEP SAYING THAT I'VE GIVEN UP ON EVER CONNECTING BENJAMIN TO JOHN T. BUT THEN I KEEP ON CHECKING!!

WE WENT TO SEE, IN CONCORD, CATHERINE BARKER, MOTHER TO JOHN POPE BARKER. HOPING THAT SHE MIGHT HAVE A LITTLE TIDBIT ON ANY OF THE JORDAN LINES. BUT IT SEEMS THAT MR. O. THOMAS HAD ALREADY SENT HER THE THINGS THAT MILDRED WATKINS HAD DUG UP AND THE QUESTIONS THAT SHE WAS TRYING TO ANSWER. I GAVE HER A FEW THINGS THAT SHE DIDN'T HAVE ON THE BENTLEY LINE AND THEN I NOTICED THAT SHE HAD A DIFFERENT LAST NAME FOR THE WIFE OF THOMAS BARKER!!

HER 'PROOF' FROM THE WAY SHE TALKED WAS FROM TALKING TO THE OLDER PEOPLE, WHICH IS FINE, BUT IT ISN'T 'PROOF' SHE IS ADAMANT THAT THERASA CAROLINE RIGGINS MARRIED THOMAS BARKER. I HAVE WHAT MADDOX PRINTED IN HIS BOOK OF GEORGIA MARRIAGES.....BIGGERS AS HER LAST NAME.

IT IS EASY TO SEE HOW THOSE TWO LAST NAMES COULD BE MIS-READ AND I'M NOT ABOUT TO CONFRONT MRS. BARKER, SHE DOES HAVE A RATHER SHALL WE SAY 'FIRM' WAY ABOUT HER. ANYWAY IN ZEBULON, I SEARCHED THE MARRIAGES RECORDS FOR THE MARRIAGE...,IT IS SUPPOSED TO BE IN THE SECOND BOOK OF MARRIAGES, I COULDN'T EVEN FIND A BARKER...I LOOKED THROUGH THE BRIDES INDEX....DIDN'T FIND RIGGINS OR BIGGERS. MY DAN WAS STANDING THERE PATTING HIS FOOT, SO I WAS RUSHING BUT I DO WANT TO FIND OUT JUST EXACTLY WHICH SOURCE, IF EITHER, IS CORRECT.

WOULD YOU, ON YOUR NEXT VISIT TO ZEBULON, CHECK THAT SECOND MARRIAGE BOOK AND SEE IF YOU CAN FIND IT? I HAVE THOMAS' WILL, AND HE STATES 'RESA CAROLINE' BUT OF COURSE DOESN'T GIVE HER MAIDEN NAME.

SURE WOULD APPRECIATE IT. WISH I COULD BE ENCLOSING A PICTURE OF YOUR 3RD GREAT GRANDFATHER WHO DIED AT MALVERN HILL BATTLE BUT HE IS NOT LISTED ON ANY CONF. LIST AND SO LIES IN AN UN-MARKED GRAVE. LITTLE CLIFFIE ALWAYS CALLED IT 'ROSE HILL CEMETERY' THAT SHOWS YOU HOW THINGS GET TWISTED WITH THE TELLING.

LOVE TO YOU AND FAMILY,

18 Oct 1984

Dear Henry:

Thank you so much for your prompt answer to my marriage question, re Thomas BArker. (first time I had seen the John in front of his name). You didn't or rather the correspondent didn't say just where he copied the marriage record. Do you know?

The xerox copies that you had sent, I had not seen. Some of the census, yes, but then , I've never researched the Barkers or Riggins. I would be interested in any documents that you have obtained re the Holmes or Popes. I'm enclosing some copies that Dr. Homer Cooper sent me years ago. You may have seen this, but he and his wife are good researchers so I'm prone to take their word for their explanation of the two 'Johns'. Let me know what you think.

Also, your Dad said that either you or Little Ben had lost the letters that John Pope Jordan had written back to GA. If you need copies, let me know, otherwise I will send them on to Ben.

We are well back into the old rut, with some fond memories of our 'adventurers'. There is really never enough time to do what you would like, is there?

Winter is coming it appears, so keep well and keep us posted as to the happenings amongst the old folks. Dan's Aunt Eliz. and Uncle Harry are really failing, bless their old hearts.

Love to you and your family. I'll look forward to any records that you would like to send me.

Dear Vivian,

Enclosed is some information given to me by Freddie Jones (Dan probably remembers his father, Robert). Freddie lives near Atlanta so he has access to the Archives. The marriage of Thomas Barker that he refers to is much earlier than the one you found. At first I thought you might be referring to his son, Thomas, but he was only 6 in 1850. I have copies of several old documents (letters, deeds, etc) relating to the Barker family. The originals belong to Greg Barker. I think I sent copies to Mrs Watkins but I don't remember whether I sent you any. I'll be glad to share these or any of the other old papers I have with you if I haven't already.

Henry

P.S. Some of the information Freddie sent me was on Holmes & Jordans. You probably have ~~that~~ this.

10/13/87

Dear Vinnie,

Enclosed is some information given to me by Franklin Dyer (I've probably mentioned his father, Robert). Franklin also wrote letters to the press to the Dubuque Times. The memory of Thomas Barker that he refers to is much earlier than the one you found. At first I thought you might be referring to his son, Thomas, but he was only 6 in 1850. I have copies of several old documents (letters, deeds, etc) relating to the Barker family. The original belong to Reg Barker. I think I can copy to the statutes but I don't remember whether I sent you one. I'll be glad to show them or any of the other old papers I have worth your if I haven't already.

Ken

PS. Some of the information Franklin sent I've seen in Thomas's Diaries. You probably have ~~seen this~~

Dear Vivian,

I'm afraid I don't have a lot of information on John Pope Jordan's burial place. What I have says he was killed at Melvin(or Malvin) Hill near Richmond. He is supposed to be buried in a Confederate cemetery near Richmond. I asked Baxter Brooks (John Pope's only living grandson) if he remembered anything. He says he remembered his mother telling how someone came back from the war and told John Pope's widow that soldiers were falling in huge numbers and John Pope was wrapped in a blanket and buried. If that is true, I wouldn't be supprised if he was buried in an unmarked grave. I'll be interested to know what you find. If you should find the grave and take any pictures, I'd like to have one of the grave.

Hope we'll see you when you get through Molena. Give my best to everyone.

Dear Mrs Jordan Aug. 12, 1974

I am descended from Elizabeth Jordan who married Thomas S. Richards. They married on May 26, 1826 (Pike Co Ga.) & were living in Troup Co Ga in 1830, page 49. They moved over into Chambers Co Ala where Thomas S. Richards died on Sept 30, 1846. Their eldest son William J. Richards born Mar 11, 1827 married Martha R. Embry Jan 18, 1849 in Chambers Co. Ala. They moved to Texas, Rusk Co. before 1855. William died Apr 20, 1868.

John T. Jordan was the administrator of Thomas S. Richards estate in Pike Co Ga. so I believe he was a brother to Elizabeth.

I have only recently discovered all this so have not worked on Jordan's line. Would appreciate any information on them.

Also the address of Mrs. Mildred S. Watkins in Amarillo, Texas if you have it. She is also descended from John Thomas Jordan b 10/14/1806

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I am replying to yours of November 25th.

I'm glad the Gray Harris data was helpful andglad to find another descendantx who will help work on the tree. The Hardy Harris-Priscilla Gray clue is godd, and I have leaned lately that some of the census births can be ~~xxxxxxx~~ in error.

Now for Jones' Crossing. It is one of those nebulous places that is still around at the confluence of Harris and Muscogee Counties. I think it is written up in the History of Harris Co., by Barfield, which you may have at your genealogical library. It was named for a man whose plantation was near there and the plantation, if my memory is right, is still around-- I mean I know it is, but wonder if I am thinking of the same place and man. Unfortunately no history of Muscogee County has been written--only several ~~hit~~ histories of Columbus (one in progress) and thus no ~~lit~~ listing of little places out in the county area. It might appeaar as a designation on a U.S.G.S. topographic map, but it is really sorta near Ellerslie, Ga. as I described above, which is in Harris County. If you dont find the book or the reference, Ill try and scrounge it up again.

Keep in touch.

Dear Vivian:

I've intended writing you for months, but this has been a frantic summer. You wouldn't believe the circles I have been going in! I hear you all made it to Welcome Hall and know you had a delightful time. We had such a short vacation we only saw Mr. Thomas briefly and didn't get to Welcome Hall at all, though we'd hope to spend a weekend.

I am still working on the family group forms and am trying to get a bunch ready to mail, but it is a slow process. And, I need a favor: Do you have a new address for Larry Rasberry in Dallas - or do you know what happened to him? I need to get in touch with him badly, regarding descendents of Elizabeth Jordan Richards, and my last letter was returned. I do not find him listed in the Dallas telephone directory. If you have his address, would you mind sending it to me?

Please excuse such a hasty note, but we have company due in a few minutes - and then when they leave I want to run to the post office. I'd appreciate Larry's address if you have it. And I'll write a real letter soon---

Sincerely,

Dear Vivian,

Please forgive this scrawl! I let a neighbor borrow my typewriter for a thesis — but think I'll have to get it soon. My writing isn't the best!

I'm still searching for Benjamin — all the time. No luck yet — though I think I told you I feel sure he was in both Pike and Troup in the 1820's — but where before that? I even read the 1820 census hoping the printed copy had omitted him — but he isn't there! There are — but 2 can't be ours & I feel sure the third isn't. General 1820 census records burned — but the only possibility there would place him in Franklin and I really have little yet to indicate that.

Have you heard any more from Mrs. Steinhagen? I wrote her & the letter was returned — so I took to the WATS line and you wouldn't believe the cases I made. I finally wound up with her attorney in Beaumont who said he couldn't give me her address, but would send a letter to her. I wrote & sent it to him — but no answer. (This was Beaumont — Steinhagen Oil Co) I really believe the connected there) I really believe the favors & her Augustus F. Jordan could be related somehow & want to contact her. Do you have any suggestions?

Also, I want to gather data on all descendants of John T. Jordan, Adeline Jordan Carruher and Elizabeth Jordan Richards — and compile these in a booklet. We have so much — but need more — too much to ignore. It should be put together. Perhaps in doing so, we'll turn up the other brothers and sisters — or something on Benjamin! Can you help me — with data on your husband's parents - children - grandchildren, etc. I'll work up a question-and-answer form soon & send you some.

I won't write much for now — we wait for the typewriter! Do let me hear when time permits. Hope all is well with you —

Love,

Mildred

Dear Vivian:

I appreciate your note regarding the trip to Atlanta - and just wish I could hop in your pocket! I hope this letter reaches you in time. Yours was postmarked the 25th of September and I got it yesterday - Oct. 2. I sometime think they still use the Pony Express in and out of Amarillo!

ANYTHING on Benjamin Jordan is what we need! One thing I do think needs to be done badly is to read the tax digests of Troup County from about 1825 through 1832. I wrote a genealogist there to do this for me, but she isn't doing much research now with a fulltime job, children and chronically-ill parents. She had done work for me before on the Jordans and so I have waited and waited and waited for her to do this, but no word in months and months.

I am certain, as I've probably told you before, that Benjamin and John Jordan in Troup County in 1830 were ours. John T. married in Pike in 1828, resided in Pike County in 1829 when he paid taxes there (tax digest of Pike for that year) or for land there and also for land he owned in Troup. Then he resided in Troup in 1830 (census) and then went back to Pike. I have the tax digests for Pike County (and thought I'd sent you a copy; if not, I will) from 1825 through 1843, though still would like to have 1848 and 1849 read for Benjamin Jordan.

So actually, in regard to tax digests, we need Troup from about 1825 (or earlier) through 1832 for Benjamin and John T. - and Pike about 1848-49.

I have all the wills and deeds for Pike County on microfilm and have been through then - and continue to go through them - page by page, without luck. Also I've had someone read the court minutes (unindexed) without finding anything.

If our Benjamin went out of Pike County, it probably would have been to live with another child - since John T. died in 1859. This would be Elizabeth Jordan Richards who went to Chambers and Randolph Counties, Ala., or Adeline Jordan Carriker who went to Panola County, Tex. Or one of the children whose names we do not know. I am certain Benjamin had others - but who? George may have been one - or Henry. The Wiley in Pike was not one of them, but belonged to John C. Jordan.

Now, in 1827 a Benjamin Jordan of Smith's District, DeKalb County, Ga., drew Lot 80, 5th District of Coweta County and this lot was immediately seized on a writ out of Franklin County in judgment of a suit brought by Nathan Truitt and Co. for Simeon Peteet against Benjamin Jordan. Could he be ours? I don't know. Benjamin's bond in Franklin was made by a John D. Holbrook - but none of these names

Dear Vivian:

A [illegible] you for returning the trip to Atlanta - but [illegible] - [illegible] in your [illegible]! I hope [illegible] in time. Journeys permitting one [illegible] - [illegible] in yesterday - [illegible]. I [illegible] time [illegible] express in and out of [illegible].

Arriving in Dorothy's [illegible] in Dean's [illegible] [illegible] to be done [illegible] is interesting [illegible] from country from about 1[illegible] through 1[illegible]. I [illegible] to do this for me, but as [illegible] which [illegible] with [illegible] children [illegible] chronics IV-III [illegible]. [illegible] done work for me before on the country and so I have [illegible] interesting [illegible] to do this, [illegible] work in [illegible] and [illegible].

I'm certain, [illegible] we [illegible] only [illegible] you before, [illegible] [illegible] in 1[illegible] in 1[illegible] weeks. [illegible] in [illegible] in 1[illegible], [illegible] County in 1[illegible] [illegible] there (Georgia) [illegible] [illegible] or [illegible] [illegible] also for [illegible] in [illegible] [illegible] (Georgia) and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] County (and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] from 1[illegible] through 1[illegible], though still would like to have 1[illegible] and 1[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible].

Actually, in regard to [illegible], we have [illegible] from 1[illegible] (or earlier) through 1[illegible] for [illegible] and [illegible] - [illegible] like about 1[illegible]-[illegible].

[illegible] - are [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] - [illegible], [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] mean anything to me insofar as a Jordan connection (but then, we really know little about any of Benjamin's connections). But this Benjamin is a "loose" one - that is, one I cannot identify as to his residences, family, etc. and it is possible he could have drifted on over into neighboring Troup County from Coweta. He is one you might watch carefully for. Also, Franklin is one of the counties for which the 1820 census is missing. And, as you know, none of the Benjamins in the existing census records of Georgia for 1820 is ours.

Also, Deed Book B, page 4 of Troup County, shows John C. Pope sold land to John Jordan of Harris County (deed written in Wilkes County) for $300 on Dec. 14, 1829. This was lot 206, 7th District of Troup. Witnesses were Bedford Cade, William Thurman and Nathan Truitt (the same as in the suit from Franklin County, but he was a J. P., so whether he was friend or attorney, I have no way of knowing).

You may find more in Troup County records - ie, wills, deeds, etc., though I do have these: Deed Book D, page 448 (John Jordan to Andrew Edwards); Deed Book B, page 180, Thomas J. Shepard to John Jordan, and Deed Book B, page 182, John Jordan to Pitt W. Milner.

Troup, Coweta and Meriwether Counties would be the best ones to check (Meriwether was cut out of Troup about 1827 - about the time the Jordans were bounning between Troup and Pike - and it fell right between Troup and Pike when it was created). In addition to the Troup tax digests, Meriwether 1827-28 may turn up Benjamin as he was at one time living right on that river between Pike and Meriwether. Whether there is anything in DeKalb County about 1825-1826 on the Benjamin who drew land as a resident there, I do not know. A deed might determine his prior residence (perhaps Franklin County) if you have time to check DeKalb deed indexes.

No doubt by now you wish you hadn't asked if there was anything that needed checking! But I've just sent the list if time permits! And I do feel more answers will be found in these records!

I will close for now as it is getting late, but I did want to answer you promptly. Guess you got my hurried note regarding Larry Rasberry; do hope I can locate him again!

I hope you all have a real nice trip to Georgia - and hope you find Benjamin or a good clue! Take care and I'll be anxious to hear when you return.

Sincerely,

Nancy

Ans Dec. 9 - 1975 - promised material asked for October 15, 1975

Dear Vivian:

Thank you so very much for the additional page re the Caldwells! I do appreciate it, even though I am terribly tardy writing to say so. I guess I should resign myself to the fact I'll never catch up!

I am enclosing copies (poor one - this machine is just lousy) of three of the deeds I told you about. I accidentally copied several of the first page of the 4th deed and forgot to copy the second page - will do this and send it later. I just feel certain this is our John! I guess now I'll go on and see about getting the tax digests check in and around Troup.

I know you are so busy - but I'd like to ask a favor - when time permits. I want to get all the descendants of John T. Jordan, Adeline Jordan Carriker and Elizabeth Jordan Richards together in booklet form - much like we did on Beckhams. Of course, the main thing we need is data on Benjamin - and I'll keep digging on this, but meanwhile notes and descendants get scattered. So, I'll do it in a way that we can add to the first part of it when we trace the line on back (optimistic still).

Ans short - April 28, 1976

Would you have time to give me your immediate family - and back to John T. That is, for example, your and your husband, children, etc., dates of births, marriages, places of residences...and the same on your inlaws (with their children, grandchildren, etc.). If you have these on charts and could just photocopy them, this would be fine - and if I had additional questions I'd holler. I think you have a Beckham book, don't you?

I am trying to gather up what I can from notes on hand and will then begin getting letters out to update and fill in. It will take a spell, but want to do is as soon as I can.

Thanks for Mrs. Steinhagen's address again - I'll write her this afternoon.

Oh, about the Caldwells. We got data from one Caldwell military folder, but dates are incomplete - and apparently two John Caldwells are filed together. I've written for more, but have not yet received anything. It may be that what we have is all they have!

I am excited over my trip to Waco - tho am still keeping my fingers crossed that I make it. I had hoped to get down early Friday but can't until late in the day because of work - and even this presents a problem. However, the finger-crossing is over Paul. This weekend he's tied up til late tomorrow with open house at the division (customers in for shopping in the showroom - sort of post-market). He was due to go to N. M. for a store opening, a MUST, last weekend and the store was delayed so am holding my breath it won't be 7th and 8th of November! My problem with my own work is that I just got a nice promotion - a rather sudden thing as the executive editor called me down to the office last Saturday and offered me the position of editorial editor - and I couldn't turn it down. It was effective last Monday and I am up to my ears in turning out editorials and pages for a.m., p.m. and Sunday papers! I was the assistant - and so far there is no replacement and I'm handling it alone. Hope I get help soon! Will you be in Waco? Do hope so.

This is a messy letter - the girls are in and out! Just stopped and fixed ice cream cones for six and they are all in the kitchen eating - said it was too cold to eat them outside!

I will stop now. Thanks again for the other page - I really do appreciate it. Hope we can soon do something re the Jordans!!

Sincerely,

Mildred

Dear Vivian:

Just a hurried note to say thanks so much for the Moultrie pages you sent - and I hope I'm not a nuisance to ask another favor. I feel like a sneak writing you at home for it too!! (Especially when it isn't Jordans!)

A friend of mine in Shreveport is trying to get her husband in the Cincinnati on Capt. or Maj. John Caldwell, shown in Heitman's Register. The line of descent is proven - but she lacks the dates of his commission and discharge, actual military service - and from Annals of Newberry we thought this might provide it. I don't have all the records as she is doing the work, but ran into a stump and asked me to help - and I asked you! Would it be too much trouble to ask you to check the first of this chapter of section of Moultrie's Vol. I, page 17, to see what the list is supposed to be - military or civil, state militia or Continental Line, dates, etc. I guess I assumed it would all be on this one page!!

I have some photocopies of some deeds in Troup County to send you - one copy I have, but will make you a copy - re John Jordan and I believe he's ours! There was a John Jordan in Harris County nearby who was NOT ours, but the one in these deeds was buying and selling from Pitt Milner and John C. Pope! He's gotta be the one with those connections. Anyway, will send you these soon and will write a "Jordan" letter then. Meanwhile, if you have any spare time you might see what you've got on Harris, Troup, Meriwether and Marion County, Ga. I know there is a Harris County history - I copied the John Jordan in 1850 census from it some time ago in Shreveport, but they don't have it here. I am trying hard to find where George Jordan went after 1850 in Pike - any suggestions?

I must stop. It is so late and if I get cranked up on Jordans I'll go on for pages and never get up in the a.m. So will talk about them in another letter.

Thanks again for the photocopy and I'll be happy to pay for any of this! By the way, the WATT line is in my office and we work about the same hours (except I get off at 3:30) - so visiting via the WATT may be difficult!

Let me know any Jordan ideas you have!

Sincerely,

Mildred

Vivian - I forgot something. This, however, isn't intended to be a bother to you - but would you pass it on to the proper desk in the library. I am trying to find proof of service - or rather details of service (such as for how long, when commissioned, when enlisted and discharged - other than Heitman's) - for Capt. John Caldwell of S. C. In "Annals of Newberry," the author refers to:

"Random Recollections of the Revolution," 4 Southern Literary Register, 40 and 41. (no page numbers given unless this is volume 4, pages 40 and 41)

✓"Moultrie's Memoirs," Vol. I, page 17 sent - Sept. 24-25-'75

If I could obtain photocopies of these pages, perhaps they'll give me the information - and I'll send the cost post haste...

Dear Vivian:

Thanks for dropping the formalities! The 'Mrs.' isn't my style either. I didn't think about you being in Mrs. Ulmer's office and the 'vj' didn't register with me - but now I see you wrote for her. I do hope I can make it to Waco - I would thoroughly enjoy the meeting and seeing everyone. Will you be there too?

By the way, a year or so ago your husband flew up here for a Masonic meeting (Mr. Thomas had told me he was grand master). I read in the paper when he was coming in at Trade Winds Airport and attempted to find out if you were accompanying him, but no luck. So, I decided the girls and I would just drive out there and see (Paul was out of town so I had to take them) -- but that day turned out to be a stormy one. I'm not sure, but seems we even had a tornado warning. Anyway, we didn't get out there --but from accounts, you'd didn't make the trip. Goodness, that was a spell ago - am not even sure when now!

I have been at this typewriter so long that I'm stumbling over the keys, so please forgive a messy letter. I've been working on Jordans though, so for that maybe I can be pardoned! I am up to my ears in land records - hoping maybe I can track them down this way.

I think I told you Benjamin Jordan appears in the 1825 tax digest of Pike County, 2 polls, no land listed, neighbor to William Spurlin and Thomas Lewis. In the 1826 tax digest, also of Pike, he is shown with 1 poll AND 202½ acres in Pike on the Flint River adjoining Clegg's lot. Benjamin then paid tax on Lot 260, 9th District, 202½ acres. (Some of this is not new but what I've been working on for quite a spell) His neighbors were Neil Urquhart (who was a neighbor to the Benjamin Jordan of Jasper earlier in that county) and Frederick Hicks. I have the deeds of Pike, but nowhere do I find Benjamin owning any property. It is possible he leased this with the agreement of paying the taxes.

Then in 1827, Benjamin Jordan in Pike is shown with 1 poll, no land, living near James Germany and Robert M. Reid. (I even ran abstracts on the neighbors' properties too - and no mention of Benjamin.)

In 1829, John T. (who had just married in 1828) is shown with 1 poll and Lot 233, 6th District of Troup and also 109 acres (TROUP) in Lot 194, 9th District, Pike. This Lot 233, 6th District, of Troup was drawn in the 1827 Lottery by Amanda Beardin and granted her in 1830 (according to archives, though John T. paid the taxes in 1829. I've written for deeds in an effort to see how John T. came by this land - gift or what? Will keep you posted on this.

In 1831, John Jordan (no T.) paid taxes on Lot 41, 5th District of Troup, and also on Lot 94th, 10th District of Marion County (formerly Muscogee). I'm checking on the Troup lot - and on the Marion. However, I do know the lot in Marion County was drawn in the 1827 Lottery by George Jordan of Darden's District in Jasper County. So, am trying now to find out if George was related and possibly gave the land to John T. - or sold it.

Also, was this the same George Jordan who married Catherine Lynn in 1830 in Jasper? And was he the same who married (2nd) Sarah Weaver in 1845 in Pike County - and is shown in the 1850 Pike census with wife Sarah and children William B., Jonathan A., Elizabeth, Dorcus, James, Starling or Sterling. This George of 1850 is the one I believe was a brother to John T. (Also note daughter Dorcus - and John T. had a daughter Dorcus - and then one Dorcas Jordan in 1840 sold items in Pike County to Henry Favors of Troup, guardian of Augustus Franklin Jordan whose wife and children later moved to East Texas).

Confusing? Yes - but perhaps in some of this some clue will be gleaned. What I want to do right now is find out where George Jordan of Pike went after 1850. He sold out and moved SOMEWHERE! Maybe he went to Marion County - or Baker County. I've not yet been able to get to the library to check these counties - and they are just hunches. He could be anywhere! If we can find out where he went, we probably can locate some descendants - and this is what I want! Any suggestions?

No, I am not certain Wiley Jordan is unrelated. What I really meant is that we now know who this Wiley's parents were - but there could still be a link elsewhere. Also, there was another Wiley wandering around Georgia - the mid-section - about that time.

Oh, the Monroe County deed flopped! The abstract I saw in print just showed "Benjamin Jordan" as a witness - the deed shows Benjamin S. - and that's the Morgan county man. Yes, the one in Greene is the one convicted of manslaughter - the one with the beautiful handwriting. I thought I had an extra copy of his handwriting, as well as extra copy (photocopy) of the court action - but I don't. I'll make one for you tho - and send it later if you'd like.

I must stop now - I must be rambling terribly. By the way, do you ever hear from the woman in Houston who had the Augustus F. Jordan Bibles? Is she still researching - or found anything new. I have her name somewhere, but can't find it - seems it started with an R and was rather German. Do let me hear again --and let me know if you have any suggestions or theories!

Sincerely,

Mildred

the taxes in 1820. I've written for deeds in an effort to see how John L. came by this land - gift or what; will keep you posted on this.

In 1831, John Jordan (no L.) paid taxes on lot 41, 3th district of Irwin, and also on lot 9th, 10th district of Marion County (formerly Muscogee). I'm checking on the Irwin lot - and on the Marion. However, I do know the lot in Marion County was drawn in the 1827 lottery by George Jordan of Warren's district in Jasper County. So, am trying now to find out if George was related and possibly gave the land to John L. - or sold it.

Also, was this the same George Jordan who married Catherine Lynn in 1830 in Jasper? And was he the same who married (2nd) Sarah Weaver in 1843 in Pike County - and is shown in the 1850 census with wife Sarah and children William B., Catherine A., Elizabeth, Lucius, James, Martin or Peter Lee. His George of 1850 is the one I believe was a brother to John L. (also note daughter Lucius - and John L. had a daughter Lucius - and then one Lucius Jordan in 1860 again lives in Pike County to nearly Favors of Irwin, guardian of Augustus Franklin Jordan whose wife and children later moved to East Texas.

Dear Mrs. Watkins:

Or may I call you Mildred? I have a feeling that we are going to be corresponding for a long time and this 'Mrs.' business is just not my style....at any rate, please call me Vivian. I hope some day to meet you in person. If you'll notice, I write most of Mrs. Ulmer's letters, so I'm writing you both way, formal and informally!

I was really very disappointed, no fault of yours, but N.O. Thomas had led me to believe you had pinned old Benj. J. down!! Of course, working in this wonderful Library you would think I could really find the missing piece to the puzzle, but this start and stop business, necessary in order to carry on my function of purportedly serving the public.....I'm really not very good at carrying a train of thought through to it's conclusion. So I take notes, and then if I'm not too tired when I get home, I try to figure out just where the notes fit--if they do! Please feel free to ask me to look something up or what have you. I wouldn't advise calling the Library though....Mrs. U. does not believe in personel calls! Any night, at my home--1-713-529-0310--oops! I work late on Wednesdays-'til 9 p.m. So, any night save Wednesdays.

Re your letter: Sure hope that your Monroe Co., Ga. deed did a little towards our puzzle. Is the Greene Co. Benj. the one who was a convict that you wrote about long time ago? With the beautiful handwriting? Would you give the reference on that? I'm curious to see it on my own.

Are you sure about Wiley Jordan not having any connection? It seems to me that my husband and his Mother have always talked about a 'cousin' Wiley Jordan. I shall check on that when I get home today. It also seems like I've heard Dan say something about 'Dorcas',too. Your theory about Atlena possibly being the name of John T's mother makes good sense to me. I shall keep a close watch for that name.

Well, I'm taking care of the film, today, and I've been up and down, so this will really sound like a blithering idiot talking!

Keep in touch and if there is anything that I can do, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Watkins:

Or may I call you Mildred? I have a feeling that we are going to be corresponding for a long time and this 'Mrs.' business is just not my style....at any rate, please call me Vivian. I hope some day to meet you in person. If you'll notice, I write most of Mrs. Ulmer's letters, so I'm writing you both way, formal and informally!

I was really very disappointed, no fault of yours, but N.O. Thomas had led me to believe you had pinned old Benj. t. down!! Of course, working in this wonderful library you would think I could really find the missing piece to the puzzle, but this start and stop business, necessary in order to carry on my function of purportedly serving the public.....I'm really not very good at carrying a train of thought through to it's conclusion. So I take notes, and then if I'm not too tired when I get home, I try to figure out just where the notes fit--if they do! Please feel free to ask me to look something up or what have you. I wouldn't advise calling the library though....Mrs. U. does not believe in personal calls! Any night, at my home--1-713-529-0310--oops! I work late on Wednesdays-'til 9 p.m. So, any night save Wednesdays.

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I was delighted to receive your letter - forwarded from the Journal. I have thought about you often and intended to write long ago - and really thought I'd call you one day. Mr. Thomas told me you were at the Clayton Library - and we have a Texas watt line at the office. I may yet give you a buzz but would probably catch you busy. Are you working in Mary Ulmer's department? Tell her I said hello!

Thank you for the offer to check something for me! Right now I could only think of a jillion things, so will just hold myself in check. The library here has so little and seldom every gets any new,really good source material in its genealogy department.

I am still going in circles with Benjamin Jordans too! The one in Greene County, Ga., is the one that still interests me most. I still feel he has some link with the Charles-Dempsey-etc. line, but cannot pin him down. I did find a deed dated Dec. 27, 1821, Monroe Co., Ga., in which a Benjamin Jourdan signed as a witness. By the process of elimination, it seems the only Benjamin Jordan possibly in Monroe at that time would be the one later in Pike County - but this in itself doesn't help much. I have ordered a copy of this deed in hopes it isn't the clerk's writing - a later recorded copy - but the original. I want to compare the handwriting on the signature as a witness with the handwriting of the one who was in Greene County. From Monroe to Pike is just a jump - since Monroe was the parent County.

I can't think of any real good lead I've gotten since last writing to you - those I did consider good didn't pan out. Remember the Wiley Jordan I thought might be a brother to John T.? He isn't. He was a son of John C., a brother to Elvers. It seems like so much of mine has been "weeding out" and I'd like to have a bit of concrete evidence re Benjamin for a change.

About the wife of Benjamin Jordan: I still believe (absolutely no proof) her given name was the same as one of John T.'s children. John T. and wife named all of their children for a relative or friend - or at least most of them, and it seems to stand to reason the others were also named for someone.

Malinda Mangham was named for an aunt; James Benjamin was named for his two grandfathers (James Holmes and Benjamin Jordan); John Pope comes from the Pope side and could have been the name of a brother or father of Rebecca; Pitt Milner married James C. Holmes' sister; Mary Jane was John T.'s wife's mom. Lumpie does dogma come Friday! Reminiscing reminds was the name of a neighbor's dog who died young and [illegible] is Rebecca Atkins. Rebecca was very much a future [illegible]'s ever, but have watched for it strongly among neighbors of the

I was glad to hear from Larry Rasberry and was more on the

Dear Mrs. Watkins:

I hope that this reaches you alright for I do not have your Texas address. Lots of water under the bridge since last we corresponded.

Believe it or not, if N. O. Thomas hasn't already told you, I now work in the Clayton Library here in Houston. So feel free to ask me to look for something for you and I'll sneak it in somehow! I just love the work, can't really call it work when it involves letting me do what I've been wanting to do for years. I have two of my daughters married and the third is my oldest girl and she can certainly take care of herself. So for the first time in 10 years, or longer, I'm free to really do what I want for a change!

I've picked up bits and pieces about Jordans but nothing that I don't think that you've already covered. I've run the Mormon 4 gen. sheets and other LDS material, with little or no results. I have some film on order from their Salt Lake Library which should be in soon. But what really pricked up my ears, was a letter from N.O. Thomas that had gotten mislaid by some freakish happening, where he is talking about lacking proof of Benjamin Jordan's wife! When and how did you prove that Benjamin was the father of John T. and which Benjamin? I've got so many notes on different Benjamins that I'm dizzy.

I must say that if you've figured out this Benjamin business, you are a jewel!!

Believe me when I say that I'll be most happy to look anything up for you, while at 'work'. Can't wait to see how and using what sorcery you finally figured out this John T.--Benjamin puzzle. Congratulations!

Sincerely,

Dear Cousin:

I am so looking forward to meeting you. Your very attractive wife came to my home in the country outside of Center without you year before last as you were tied up in a meeting. We were so sorry you could not join us but hope that the two of you will find an opportunity to visit us soon.

My two sisters, together with a brother and many nieces and nephews, live in the Center area, and all of us are very proud of our Jordan heritage. We are now even more proud knowing that you have reached such stature in your Masonry.

I have been working on the Jordan line for many years, and we are still stumped for lack of proof of Benjamin Jordan's wife. Benjamin was the father of John T. Jordan. John T. and his wife, Mary Jane Holmes, were the parents of my grandmother, Ann Eliza Jordan, who was the sister of John Pope Jordan.

At any rate, we do want to know you and your family and will be looking forward to meeting you.

I have lived in Shreveport since 1932, but I am now slowing down and will eventually be living at my place in the country on a more permanent basis. Give my best to Vivian and your family.

Merry Christmas,

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

It has been a long time between letters, but I know you are still interested in Jordans - and wondered if you'd found anything new, even a good clue. Also, I wanted to pass along a bit of information althought it really doesn't make anything "fit" yet.

I have found Benjamin Jordan in the 1825, 1826 and 1827 tax digests of Pike County, Ga. The 1828 is missing and when it resumes in 1829, Benjamin is not there. The following is from these tax lists:

1825: Capt. Wyatt Hicks District--Benjamin Jordan, 2 polls, no land listed, paid 62½¢

1826: Capt. Joseph Weaver's District--Benjamin Jordan, 1 poll, 202½ acres in Pike County on Flint River adjoining Clegg, Lot 260, 9th District, paid 46¼¢ (Benjamin did not own this land - I've checked it through. It was granted to a Bivins of Elbert Co., Ga., and in 1826 it was owned by James R. Gray or James Mims - Gray sold it to Mims that year)

1827: Capt. Henry Vardeman's District--Benjamin Jordin, 1 pole only, paid 31¢.

In 1820 (land lottery) Benjamin Jordan Sr. of Scotts District, Jackson County, drew Lot 177, 5th District of Henry County (DeKalb County was 2 years later from part of Henry). Also a Benjamin Jordan of Jasper Co., drew lot 177, 5th District of Henry Co.--and Benjamin S. Jourdan of Morgan Co. drew lot 16, 15th District of Monroe. By logic, the Benjamin S. Jourdan should be John T. Jordan's father because of locale, but am certain he is the son of Hezekiah and was too young to be ours. The Benjamin of Jasper County remained in Jasper County where he died about 1859. So, that leaves Benjamin of Jackson drawing land in DeKalb.

In the 1827 lottery Benjamin Jordan of Smith's District, DeKalb Co., drew Lot 80, 5th District of Coweta County - and that same year that lot was sold by the sheriff of Coweta County to the highest bidder on order of a suit out of Franklin County against Benjamin Jordan. (Franklin was near Jackson - in fact, Franklin was formed 1796 from Jackson).

So - was Benjamin of Jackson-Franklin to DeKalb County the one we seek? I can't yet place him - so hav e high hopes.

Anyway, I thought I'd write and ask if you have turned up anything in these areas of Georgia!? The 1820 census shows a Benjamin in DeKalb too.

Of course, Benjamin Jordan was in the 1827 tax digest of Pike, but without land - so perhaps he lost his land over in Jackson and had been living anyway several years in Pike.

As I said, I just wanted to get these new findings to you - perhaps something here might fit in with something you've found. We'll keep looking and keep you posted. I am going to get someone to check the DeKalb and Coweta records - though some of DeKalb's were burned. Also, we have someone checking Pike court minutes now.

Let me hear when time permits -

Sincerely,

Mildred W.

Lord's arrest of Doctor in the 1880 cartoon series. Benjamin as Arcadian.

Of course, Benjamin Garcon was in the 1927 sub cycle of Year, the mystery land - so perhaps he just has left over an weapon and had been living among several years in vain.

As a matter, I just wanted to get those new findings to you - perhaps you'll come here right for an with something you've found. We'll keep looking and keep you posted. I am going to put someone to work the serial bound cartoons records - though some of Lessig's work burned also, we have someone currently fixes water mirror now.

Let me hear when time permits -

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I must apologize for being such a tardy correspondent. I do appreciate your letters and the information, very much, and am working ardently on the Jordans, but making little progress so far.

One reason I am a bit slow with letter-writing right now is Paula, born Oct. 6--a real honey, but she and Amy (now 3½) keep me busy at home; and work in the office has been more than usual since I returned in November and I can't seem to catch up with the column, news work or anything else.

I believe, now at least, that Benjamin Jordan who transscribed the Greene County, Ga., court records ca 1811-1815 was ours---and that he had the wanderlust. I have found Benjamins in Henry, Fayette, Troup, Meriwether, Pike, Jones, Jasper, Greene, Baldwin, etc---all within the lifetime of ole Benjamin of Pike. The one in Jasper had a daughter who married a Holland and one who married an Alexander--and I still wonder if John T., Adeline and Elizabeth were also his; but then many things point to these being separate Benjamins. I find the Birds, Heards, Brownings, Daniels around the one in Greene---and find some of these later in Pike and Putnam. Reckon Putnam has more? The Benjamin of Jasper was administrator on the estate of a George Clark in 1853 in Jasper (from Southern Recorder) and this administration was assumed by Thomas J. Alexander (grandson of this Benj.) after Benjamin's death. But, again--don't know that this is the same Benjamin. Thought I'd pass these surnames along in case they mean something to you.

I'm still trying to track down a family with the name Atlena in it. Since John T. and Mary J. named one son James Benjamin for his two grandfathers, I still wonder if the first-born Rebecca Atlena was named for her two grandmothers.

I also think we badly need to find the whereabouts of George Jordan and Wiley C. Jordan (in Pike, 1850) in 1860 on--and locate some of their descendants as I believe they were brothers to John T. Somehwere one small "key" is all we need to unravel the Jordans, I think. I have so much Jordan material that I feel I probably have many of Benjamin's ancestors and descendants among my notes, but lack the "link."

Scuse this rather hasty note. My letter-writing time is limited this a.m., but did want to get this in the mail to you. Let me hear--and I'll try to do better--and, of course, will keep you posted on any progress (I hope there will soon be some !). Do let me hear when you can-

Mildred W.

Thanks for calling & pardon this note. I found no Ancestor H — but will search more last week on vacation & write them. Will pick up mail regularly Rec — so write when you can.

Dear Mrs. Watkins;

I had thought that the next time I wrote to you, I just might be able to add a definate bit of knowledge on John Thomas Jordan (1806) but I've just about come to the conclusion that he didn't have any parents!!

It has been rather amusing here of late.....everything I send out, hoping for a lead on my Jordans.....back comes the 'Jordan Bible Page' and the mention that 'Mrs. Watkins of Shreveport, La.,' can give me all the information I need!

You mentioned once to me that you had received that same Bible page a hundred times, well, I'm not far behind you! You also, at one time, said that there were quite a few corrections to that particular piece of information. I'm wondering that if possible, you could send me a corrected item, then I could start circulating the correct information to all these various and sundry people. It is a shame to let something like that go on and on, in an incorrect form. Would appreciate it for my on files too.

Are you still trying to help Mr. Thomas (?) with his Beckham,Jordan line? If there is anything that I can do, please tell me!

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Thank you for your letter of Aug. 21. Isn't it disgusting when queries bring that same ole Jordan Bible or refer you to me? I've had the same thing happen so many times, but we are still digging persistently, and mostly on Jordans.

First, you asked about the Bible...and errors in it.
1st line: should be Mary J. Holmes instead of Mary L. Holmes also it is shown as "John T. Jordan" and not "John Thomas Jordan"--and I have still never found any reference showing his middle name, but always just the initial "T"
2nd page: should be James J. Jordan and Ann E. Beckham, not James T. Jordan
One date we thought was grossly in error is okey--and am sure this is one thing I had in mind when I mentioned errors. And, I received several written copies with errors, but am assuming you have the oft-circulated mimeo copy.

Since last writing you, several things have "popped" up--in fact, mostly in the last few weeks. The only thing I am positive of now is that Benjamin Jordan was the father of John T. Jordan---so now, who was this Benjamin???????? Of course, I have always felt this was correct since Benjamin was in the 1850 household. Then, several weeks agao a descendant went through her mother's papers and found one sheet on which she had written, probably about 20 or so years ago, her parents and dates, grandparents, etc.--on to John T. Jordan. All dates jibe with ours. And, the next generation she showed: "John T. Jordan was the son of Benjamin Jordan." But, unfortunately she did not put down any dates or places--just this !

As I wrote you before, I am certain Adeline Jordan who married Jacob Carriker Jan. 25, 1839, Pike County, Ga., was a sister to John T. Jordan (they or their descendants moving to Cushing, Tex.). One descendant here (age 91, excellent memory) said his parents were both first cousins to both Jacob and his wife---which would make this relationship correct.

Then, in 1853, John T. Jordan of Pike County, Ga., was administrator for estate of Thomas L. Richards (there seems to be some question about this middle initial, whether S or L) who died Sept. 30, 1846, Chambers Co., Ala. In the War of 1812 widow's pension, the widow states she was Elizabeth Jordan and had married Thomas S. Richards in Pike Co., Ga., May 26, 1826 (no record has been found yet in Pike).

The will of Thomas L. (?) Richards in Chambers Co. was made April 25, 1846, probated Oct. 12, 1846, ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ names "wife and her children"; son Joseph M. D. Richards; daughter Polly Richards and Charity Banks; wife and Joseph M. D. Richards to be executors (tho in 1853 John T. Jordan was appointed executor). A copy of this is also recorded in Pike Co., along with a statement by Elizabeth Richards, "wife of Thomas L. Richards of Milltown, Chambers Co., Ala., Nov. 14, 1853," in which she lists her children "by Thomas L. Richards" as William J., Susan A., Thomas L., George W., James W., Rufus L. and Edna Prudence Richards." Some thing she married twice---but in the pension application she states she has never "been previously married."

I think Elizabeth Jordan was also a sister to John T. If I am correct, that would be John T., Elizabeth and Adeline for a start on the children of Benjamin.

In 1835, an item in the Macon newspaper showed Mrs. M. E. Alexander, daughter of Benjamin Jordan, died at the home of her father in Jasper Co. Was this the same Benjamin or a different one? Could the one in 1850 in Jasper Co. be the same as in John's home in 1850 in Pike--possibly a visitor? I really doubt this--but can't pass up the idea yet. Benjamin and Elizabeth of Jasper had their Alexander grandchildren living with them in 1850. Jane M. Jordan who married Dr. Joseph Lawton Holland was, I am also sure, another daughter of this Benjamin Jordan of Jasper who died probably just before 1860.

In 1824 Benjamin Jordan was a member of the jury in Pike County, Ga., according to the Macon newspaper--so he WAS there !

On Nov. 25, 1823, a Benjamin Jordan of Jasper Co. sold land to a John Finch, also of Jasper, land being in Henry County formerly, "now in Fayette Co." And, in 1826-27, a Benjamin Jordan of Jasper was a Lt. in militia.

This is some hodge-podge, isn't it? Whether we have one, two or even three Benjamins in the above records, I just don't know--but I think we must now find a Jordan family with a son Benjamin born about 1776 and we'll have it whipped---tho that alone is a task since the only family I've found possible now is that of Matthew, Fleming, etc.---and I simply mean "possible." Have you heard any more from the woman with the Augusta Jordan connection?

I am not sure exactly where to go from here, but feel all counties from Pike westward to the Alabama line need to be checked, as well as more Alabama records on the Jordans---and am trying to do this now (the Ga. counties).

Excuse the messy letter---my typewriter ribbon needs to be replaced. Do let me hear soon and I'll keep you posted. We are working mostly on the Jordans now and I'd sure welcome any clues or suggestions.

Sincerely,

Mildred

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I have continued to watch for Jordan-Heath connections--as I still feel possibly there is a connection with the Jordans we seek. Now, I feel that even more so since I've found they were in Pike County, Ga., about the same period as John T. Jordan.

In the marriages of Pike County, Ga., there are:

Augustus F. Jordan and Mary Heath, married Nov. 19, 1848
William L. Heath and Jane Jordan, married Jan. 4, 1849

Reckon these could be younger brother and sister of John T? I doubt it, but I'd still like to know more about those Jordans since they were in Pike County and also since Heaths were connected to the Lovick Jordan line (and I'm still curious about Lovick and a possible connection to Benjamin).

I know one ~~XXXXXX~~ Caroline Jordan, daughter of a Benjamin Jordan (same as John T.'s father?), was born about 1808 and married an Alexander. However, this Benjamin was in Jasper Co., Ga., with wife, Elizabeth, in 1850. Could he have just been visiting in Pike? One genealogist there believes he was, but yet we find him there in 1840 census.

About Seaborn Jones: I have not found information on the one in the Bible, as born 1799, but did find one Seaborn Jones was born Jan. 15, 1759 in Halifax, N. C., died July 24, 1815, buried at Augusta, Ga. (was a Revolutionary soldier). Also in 1790 one Ann Wilkison (in Wilkes Co. records) gives a slave to her daughter, Sarah Harwood Jones, wife of Seaborn Jones of Augusta. Perhaps the one born 1799 was a son! Will keep looking--perhaps the Jones family connects with John T. Jordan's ancestry! I still think the Thorntons, Mallorys and possibly Birds were related.

Not much this time--and forgive the typing. I've been at this typewriter all day and am worn out. Mondays are bad for Action Line (I'm editor of a column like your Watchem), but did want to send this to pass on for you and the woman in Beaumont. Will keep looking for Benjamin!

Mildred Watkins

Mrs. Ann P. Jordan
Lost Member of Commerce Club, Houston, Texas

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

I have continued to watch for Jordan-Hasson-Hasenkrieg--as I still feel probably there is a connection with the Jordans around. Now, I find that even more so since I've found they were in this County, Ga., about the same period as Ann L. Jordan.

In the marriages of this County, Ga., there are:

Amelia M. Jordan and Mary Hasson, married Nov. 12, 1843
William L. Hasson and Jane Jordan, married Jan. 4, 1849

Perhaps there could be another brother and sister of 1844 if I could tie out Ib still like to know more about these Jordans since they were in this County and also Hasse Hasses were connected to the Jordan line (see I'm still curious about Lovick and a possible connection to Jordan).

Obituaries

I know one Amelia Jordan, daughter of a prominent Jordan family as Vann L. Jordan, was born about 1843 and married at Alexander. However, this daughter was in Jasper Co., Ga., with wife, Elizabeth, in 1880. Would you have just been visiting in Pike? One genealogist there believes he was but yet we know him there in 1840 census.

Also, been in Rome, I have not found some information on the one in the village cemetery (1?), but did find one gravestone there was born Jan. 12, 1774 in Virginia, d. ... day, July 24, 1815, buried in Augusta, Ga. (same a revolutionary soldier). Also in 1790 one Ann Jordan (in Virginia Co. received power of slave to her daughter, Jane Jordan Jordan, wife of Robert Jordan of Augusta. Perhaps too much for this was a son! Will keep looking--perhaps the Jordan Family Genealogy-with-Jordan. Jordan's mystery! I will claim the innocence, relatives and possibly other were related.

Our mom only time--has forgiven his trying. I've been so time I saw that all may find an work out. Monday are out for Ashton time I'm sister of college time your Woodham, but did want to send this to see on for you and the mean in Rosebrook. Will keep looking for Benjamin!

Sincerely,

Mrs. [illegible]

Dear Mrs. Watkins;

Thank you for your letter of October 7. Sure hope that one of these days a lead will come through to you and it will 'open the door' so to speak!

I'm writing today (when I have no earthly right to take off work,) but I just had to jot this to you for what it is worth. This name was new to me, probably old to you.

Mrs. L. D. Lewis-3711 E. 71st., Tulsa, Okla. 74135.....wrote to me in answer to one of my queries.

'Sarah Lewis, widow of Philip Lewis, left a will in Elbert Co., Ga. dated 1823, probated 1824 in which she named her children. Included in that list was Nancy Jurdin. I know nothing further of Nancy but this Lewis family was from Granville Co., N. C. to Elbert Co. Ga. during the 1780's. We do not have an exact birthdate for any of the twelve children of Sarah (Shearman) Lewis, but other records indicate that at least two daughters and one son were older than Nancy-Maybe others also, which would give an estimated birthdate for Nancy Lewis Jurdin as probably in the 1780's, which would surely allow for a son to be born 1806.

I continue to quote from her letter. 'Another thing-Nancy Lewis Jurdin had brothers both John and Thomas, and other generations of the family combined them as John Thomas.....but again both are very common given names. This Lewis family lived in the southeastern part of Elbert Co., not very far from the Wilkes Co. Line. The reconstructed 1790 Elbert Co. census lists only one Jordan-Absolem-who lived in that same eastern part of the county. Most of the Lewises left Elbert Co. before 1840 for Shelby Co. Ala. Later they moved to Northern La. and to east Texas.'

She ends by saying that if there is some connection she has much Lewis information that she would be glad to share with me. Hope this means something to you.

Have a good safe, healthy, happy Christmas and New Year.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Your letter was waiting when we returned yesterday. I'll take the check for the subscription back down to the office in the morning, but the circulation department will not start a subscription with back issues, just beginning with the current one. I hope soon (if I ever find time) to get the columns together in a book. The publisher is waiting--I've just not found time !

As I told you on the phone, the name Heath in with Jordans rang a bell--and I found the notation, but do not know how they connect or where my material came from. I have a mimeographed sheet--and no one seems to know its original source-- just that "someone" typed it up and passed it out once. It shows the following:

Jacob Jordan, born Feb. 24, 1770, died Nov. 20, 1838, married Elizabeth Jordan, ~~XXXXXXX~~ born Feb. 18, 1762, died Nov. 3, 1820. Then, next comes this (and I assume he was a son, but this does not say):
Lovich P. Jordan, born Jan. 19, 1807, died March 16, 1864, married 1. Nancy Heath, born Jan. 19, 1808, died July 11, 1844; married 2. Melinda A. Freeman, born 1816, died June 30, 1848, and married 3. Ann S. Lovejoy, born 1815, died May 9, 1892.

It then lists the children of L. P. Jordan by first wife, Nancy Heath, married 1825:
John Wesley Jordan, born Sept. 21, 1826, died Nov. 16, 1840
Elvira Elizabeth Jordan, b. April 12, 1828, died Nov. 18, 1830
Jacob Arnold Jordan, April 14, 1830
Nancy Awranier Jordan, born May 13, 1832
Mandy Ann Elizabeth Jordan, born Dec. 21, 1834
Augustics Mason Jordan, born Feb. 18, 1837, died Oct. 9, 1840
William Henry Jordan, born May 30, 1839
Elias Purifray Jordan, born Nov. 25, 1841
Sarah Jane Jordan, born July 6, 1844

I hope soon (if I ever find time) to get the columns together in a book. The subject is waiting--I've had not found time!

As I told you on the phone, the news flash in with Jordan came a mail--and I found the notation, but do not know how they connect or where my material came from. I have a photographed sheet--and it does seem to view the original source--but that "scenario" turned it up and passed it out soon. It seems the following:

Jacob Jordan, born Feb. 24, 1770, died Nov. 20, 1844, married Elizabeth Jordan, XXXXXXX born Feb. 13, 1772, died Nov. 3, 1820. Then, next comes this (and I assume he was a son, but this does not say):

Levin P. Jordan, born Jan. 19, 1807, died Sept. 26, 1844, married J. Nancy Hardy, born Jan. 10, 1808, died June 12, 1841; married 2. Melissa A. Freeman, born 1825, died June 30, 1848, and married 3. Ann S. Hovey, born 1819, died May 9, 1854.

It then lists the children of L. P. Jordan by first wife, Nancy Hardy, married 1828:

Jean Wesley Jordan, born Sept. 21, 1829, died Nov. 16, 1842
Sylvia Elizabeth Jordan, b. April 12, 1832, died Nov. 18, 1850

Augustus Mason Jordan, born Feb. 18, 1837, died Oct. 5, 1840

Children of L.P. Jordan by 3rd wife, Ann S. Lovelyr, married Jan. 7, 1850 in Pike Co., Ga.. (over)

Willis Nelson Jordan, born July 18, 1852
Russell Benson Jordan, born July 18, 1852
Frances Leanora Jordan, born April 9, 1854
Augusta Caroline Jordan, born Oct. 9, 1855
Julius Fletcher Jordan, born Sept. 11, 1857

And, that is all. I have wondered if Jacob could have been a brother to Benjamin--but nothing to base it on.

I have found many references to Seaborn Jones (probably more than one) in various counties, but will have to go back through some books and papers to see where he was. I don't remember seeing any Jordan connection tho--and feel sure that would have stuck with me. But, I will go back through all this as soon as I can and see what I can find on him.

Stewart Beckham, 90, son of James Jefferson Beckham and Ann Eliza Jordan (daughter of John T. Jordan), said both his mother and father were kin to XXXXX Jesse Carriker of Cushing, Tex. We know Jesse was the son of Jacob Carriker and Adeline___. I have now found that Jacob Carriker married Adeline Jordan in Pike Co. in 1839 (she was born ca 1818). So, I now wonder--was she a sister to John T. Jordan???????? I believe she was. It isn't much--but every little bit helps, as they say.

The Bible is most interesting, tho, as you said, a bit confusing. I appreciate you calling and sending me the copy of it--and I'll see if I can find more of these names, but meanwhile though I'd go ahead and send you this Jordan-Heath connection I have. I am sorry there is no source given !

Do let me hear--and I'll keep digging. I'll be working on Jordans--and others--pretty regularly now until about the 29th when I go back to work...and then still in every spare minute til I can do something with these elusive Jordans ! By the way, have you ever found any Thornton connection with Jordans? I keep finding them living near--and am just curious.

Hope this letter makes sense. Amy keeps running in and out--the baby-sitter is having a hard time keeping her out of here today !

Sincerely,

Mildred W.

Willis Nelson Jordan, born July 18, 1844.
Russell Hudson Jordan, born July 7, 1856.
Vernon Lawrence Jordan, born April 4, 1858.
Augusta Georgiana Jordan, born Oct. 6, 1859.
Julius Platoner Jordan, born Sept. 20, 1862.

And, that is all. I have wondered if Jesse could have been a brother to Harrison--but nothing to back it up.

I have found many references to Lawson Jordan (probably more than one) in various counties, but will have to go back through some books and search to see where he was. I don't remember seeing our Jordan connection--but feel sure that would have stuck with me. But, I will go back through all this as soon as I can and see what I can find on him.

Stewart Buckham, PO, son of James Jefferson Buckham and Ann Elizabeth Jordan (daughter of John T. Jordan), said that his mother and father were kin to Essex Jesse Garriner of Gum Swamp. He was proud of Jesse and the son of Jesse Garriner and Adeline ___. I have now found that Jesse Garriner married Adeline Jordan in Pike Co. in 1858 (she was born in 1838). So, I not wonder--was she a sister to John T. Jordan??? I believe she was. It isn't much--but every little bit helps, as they say.

The Hibbs is most interesting, too, as you said. Bit confusing. I appreciate you mailing and sending me the copy of it--and I'll see if I can find more of these names, but probably though I'm go among and you this Jordan-Hibbs connection I have. I am sorry there is no source given!

So let me know--and I'll keep looking. I'll be working on Jordans--and others--pretty regularly now until about the 20th when I go back to work...and then only in my spare minutes till I can go something with it and enjoy Jordans! By the way, have you ever found any Thornton connection with Jordans? I keep finding them living near--was an Joel curious.

Hope this letter makes sense. My keeps running in and out--too busy either to write a hard time keeps me out of here today!

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

Just a few lines this time as I am a bit rushed this morning and trying to get a lot done while the baby-sitter is here...and am having to move slow now in a corset as a result of a fractured disc from the wreck.

However, I have a few Boswell notes, thought I doubt they are of any real help. First from Jones Co., Ga.: will of Susannah Boswell, Jan. 9, 1812, Feb. 11, 1812, names sons William, Thomas, James and Andrew Boswell; heirs of son Alexander Boswell; daughters Elizabeth, Jane and Rebecca; executors William Jackson and Thomas Raines; witnesses Ferebee Connor, Sarah Daniel, Ann Kinnon and Abram Boieland. Then from Wilkes Co. Settlement of Estates by Smith: George Boswell, deceased; Sarah Boswell administrator, June 7, 1827; accounts of minors--Elizabeth, Johnson, Sarah, Jane H. and Frances C. Boswell (Returns 1820-29, page 3).

Thanks for the dates on Hiram Beckham. I had the birth date (year), but not death date and had thought he died in the Civil War. He married Jane Doster in 1846. Oh, and by the way, I have been in contact with the descendant in Center through the descendant here--and doubt she can add any more to the Jordans. I do believe somewhere there must be someone who could recall some related surnames, places or something about the Jordans--but where?????

I am still contacting by mail and phone anyone who might can give us any lead on the Jordans. I still think we could make some progress if we could just find names of John T.'s brothers and sisters and where they went ! And, I have yet to find ANY Jordan's will naming a son John about the period of ole John T.

Am sorry I have nothing new--but am "digging" daily on Jordans and hope we can come up with something soon. Will also watch for Boswells as I go.

Sincerely,

Mildred

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

This is going to be a rather hasty, and probably jumbled, letter, but I did want to get a few lines in the mail to you. Also, my apologies for being so tardy in answering your letter of Oct. 6.

First, a few notes on Hootens that might be of interest from Jones County, Ga., History by Williams:
Marriages:
Eliza Hooten and Stephen Gilmore, 3-10-1814
Lucy Hooten and Redding Wilson, 8-31-1820
Jas. Hooten and Cynthia Cox, 2-8-1821
Henry A. Hooten and Eveline Rushing, 3-20-1823
(note:Henry Hooten performed a number of marriages in 1813 to 1820's including the last three above)

I do not know anything about the line of Dr. George L. Jordan Jr., which you sent, tho all of that part of the country is like home to me. My ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ great-grandfather, Sherod T. Smith, was born between Hookerton and Snow Hill--and my grandfather and father reared in nearby Craven Co., N. C., and I have spent many vacations up in there doing research. I think 9/10th of that area of N. C. are kin to me !

I am still digging, with few results, but have found that Benjamin Jordan of Jasper Co., Ga., had a daughter Caroline--tho so far I cannot find names of his other children. If only someone could even recall the names of John T. Jordan's brothers and sisters--or their children, etc. Hope you have heard from your letters by now. I called Miss Mary Jordan, a daughter of Henry Garland Jordan, recently--but her memory is not very good and she could not help. Of course, she is quite elderly and lives in a nursing home in Waycross, Ga. A man from Shreveport left here today for Georgia, working on Jordans, and said he hoped to see Wiley Jordan in Macon--perhaps in person he can recall more than by letter. This local man does not know that his Jordans are related, but his grandfather was Henry Wiley Jordan who m. Lucinda Bond---and you know how common Wiley is among the Jordans.

I must run--mostly wanted to get this Hooten material off to you--will write more soon-

Sincerely,

Mildred

Dear Mrs. Jordan:

How nice to locate somewhere else working on the same Jordan line. It seems most folks are working all around this one and it is very rare to find another interested in it. My thanks to Mrs. Robinson for telling me about you.

I did enjoy talking to you the other day and had thought I'd write every day, but the week was so busy. As I told you on the telephone, I am sure this John T. Jordan Bible is one of the most circulated Bible records in existance--yet no one seems to have ever been concerned about tracing the family beyond him. Yet, I feel certain he was not without relatives in Georgia--but who were they?

I assume Benjamin Jordan, born ca 1776, shown in the household of John T. Jordan in the 1850 census of Pike Co., Ga., was the father of John T. He could have been an uncle, but even working on that assumption, I have found nothing to indicate a John T. Jordan was a nephew. (Excuse this typing--I seem to be all thumbs today) I have tracked down Benjamin Jordans all across Georgia. One died in Jasper Co., Ga., in 1860--but no will can be found. Papers dealing with his estate show Jane M. Holland as the administratrix and a T. J. Alexander as having received his share. These papers indicate litigation over the large estate--yet we cannot find any litigation instruments. There was a Benjamin Jordan in Jasper Co., 1850 census. The question: were they two different men or could Benjamin have been visiting John T. at the time the census was taken in Pike and been at home when the enumerator called in Jasper?

The 1850 Jasper census show Benjamin as born in 1777 in N. C. (the 1850 Pike shows Benjamin born 1776 in Ga.--note similarity) and his wife as Elizabeth. Also in the household of the Benjamin in Jasper were Marshal G. Alexander, age 21; William F. Alexander, age 18, and Thomas J. Alexander, age 16. (grandsons?)

In 1850, Pike Co., Ga., a George Jourdin lived three houses from John T. Jordan, and further away was a Wiley C. Jordan. These were both born in Georgia--and I feel they may have been brothers to John T.--but I have nothing to go on except a hunch.

Also a point of interest: John T. Jordan had a daughter named Mary Jane Dorcas Jordan. George Jourdin, born about 1800, had a daughter named Dorcus. John T. Jordan had a son named James Benjamin Jordan, while George had a son William B. (Benjamin?) Jordan. One thing thatalso interests me is the name of one of the sons of George Jourdin--one named Starlin (Starling, Sterling). The 1805 Land Lottery, Burke Co., shows a Benjamin Jordan and a Sterling Jordan, neighbors. Sterling or Starling Jordan was a juror in Burke Co., Ga., by 1791, meaning he was over 21 years of age. I have wondered if Sterling or Starling Jordan was the father of Benjamin--and Benjamin was the father of John T., George and possibly Wiley C. !

Also, you'll note John T. Jordan and his wife were apparently great believers in family names--or at least in naming their children for ancestors and relatives, even though some a bit distant. Rebecca Atlena Jordan was apparently named for her grandmother, Rebecca Pope Holmes (where does Atlena come from--could that have been the Jordan grandmother?); Malenda Mangham Jordan was named for her mother's sister; James Benjamin Jordan was named for his two grandfathers, James Holmes and Benjamin Jordan; John Pope Jordan, for his mother's maiden name (and I've wondered if her father wasn't one of the John Popes of Wilkes); Pitt Milner Jodan, for a great uncle; Mary Jane Dorcas, for her mother (Dorcas for whom?), and etc. So, perhaps more clues lie in these children's names than we have yet exhausted.

Ann Eliza Jordan (daughter of John T. Jordan and Mary Jane Holmes) was born Dec. 5, ~~XXX~~ 1842, Pike Co., Ga., died May 25, 1906 in Dale Co., Ala., married Oct. 27, 1859, Pike Co., Ga., to James Jefferson Beckham, born March 20, 1839, Pike Co., Ga., died May 15, 1931, Center, Tex. Their children were:

1. Madora Atlene Beckham, born Feb. 28, 1861, Pike Co., married J. J. Hardin.
2. James Holmes Beckham, born Dec. 25, 1863, m. a Mills
3. John Russell Beckham, born Dec. 3, 1866, married Fannie Meadows.
4. Mary Alice Beckham, born May 8, 1872, married Noah Oscar Thomas(parents of the descendant I'm helping--have you heard from him yet?)
5. Aldine Beckham, m. a Donnell
6. William Stewart Beckham, born Nov. 21, 1877, m. first Lucy Smith, second Jencie Cook~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~.
7. Newton Willis Beckham, m. a Pouncy
8. Pattie Beckham, m. Will Banks
9. Claudia Beckham, m. first J. F. Meadows, second C. L. Kendrick
10. Minnie Beckham, born 1869, m. Ed Sconyers.

I have much more data on other children of John T. Jordan, but am in the process of grouping it a bit and will send more when I have it assembled.

Mary Jane Holmes, wife of John T. Jordan, was the daughter of James C. Holmes and Rebecca Pope, both natives of Wilkes Co., Ga., where they married in 1806. Mary Jane's sisters were: Malinda, born April 18, 1810, died May 30, 1880, married Wiley E. Mangham, Dec. 20, 1827, and Harriet N. Holmes, born 1814, married 1833 to Thomas J. Hartsfield.

James C. Holmes was the son of John Holmes and Chloe Bentley--and from here on the line becomes a bit confused in that some errors have apparently been made by previous researchers. We do not know Chloe's parents, nor when and where she died, but it was after 1814. We are not certain of John Holmes' parents, nor his birth date and marriage date, but he died about 1803 in Wilkes Co., Ga., leaving an excellent will.

Our best bet right now seems to be in contacting older members of the family for any clues. Perhaps some could recall the names of John T.'s brothers and sisters--which would be a tremendous help. Others might recall surnames of persons related to the family, places, etc.--and you never know which inheriting on the 1/16 mark at one of the zone of George Jaudon--one of the stirrip (Sterling, Sterling). The 1805 land Lottery, Burke Co., shows a Benjamin Jordan and a Sterling Jordan, neighbors. Sterling or Sterling Jordan was a juror in Burke Co., GA., by 1821. Benjamin he was over 21 years of age. I have wondered if Sterling or Sterling Jordan was the father of Benjamin--and Benjamin was the father of John T., George and possibly Wiley C. !

Also, you'll note John T. Jordan and his wife were apparently great believers in family names--or at least in naming their children for ancestors and relatives, even though such a bit distant. Rebecca Atlens Jordan was apparently named for her grandmother, Rebecca Jane Holmes (where does Atlens come from--could that have been the maiden surname?); Mary Jordan Jordan was named for her mother's sister: James Benjamin Jordan was named for his two grandfathers, James Holmes and Benjamin Jordan; John Fane Jordan, for his mother's maiden name (and I've wondered if her father wasn't one of the John Fanes of Wilkes); Pitt Milner Jordan, for a great uncle; Mary Jane Dorsey, for her mother (Dorsey for whom?), and etc. So, perhaps more clues lie in those children's names than we have yet exhausted.

Ann Eliza Jordan (daughter of John T. Jordan and Mary Jane Holmes) was born Dec. 5, XXX 1842, Pike Co., Ga., died May 25, 1909, in Polk Co., Ala., married Oct. 27, 1864, Pike Co., Ga., to Jones Jefferson Jordan, born March 20, 1840, Pike Co., Ga., died May 15, 1921, Cedar, Tex. Their children were:

1. Modena Atlens Jordan, born Feb. 22, 1871, Pike Co., married J. J. Martin.
2. James Holmes Jordan, born Dec. 25, 1875, m. Willie
3. John Russell Jordan, born Dec. 3, 1876, married Fannie Mendows.
4. Mary Alice Jordan, born May 6, 1878, married John Oscar Thomas (parents of the Cassandra I'm helping--have you heard from his wife?)
5. Alpha Jordan, m. Donnell
6. William Stewart Jordan, born May. 21, 1877, m. First Lucy Smith, second Jessie Cooper
7. Newton Willis Jordan, m. Fanny
8. Pettie Jordan, m. Will Banks
9. Claudia Jordan, m. First J. F. Mosdaws, second J. I. Franklin
10. Minnie Jordan, born 1859, m. Ed Sawyers.

I have much more data on other children of John T. Jordan, but we in the process of growing it a bit and will send more when I have it assembled.

Mary Jane Holmes, wife of John T. Jordan, was the daughter of James C. Holmes and Rebecca Fane, both native of Wilkes Co., Ga., where they married in 1806. Mary Jane's sisters were: Melinda, born April 18, 1810, died May 30, 1880, married Wiley C. Jordan, Dec. 20, 1837, son Berrien B. Holmes, born 1814, married 1837 to Thomas J. Martelleia.

James C. Holmes was the son of John Holmes and Sylva Hadley--and from here on the line Hodges a bit continued to that Jane across here, research been made by previous researchers. We do not know Sylva's parents, nor when and where she died, but it was after 1814. We are not certain of John Holmes' parents, nor his birth date and marriage date, but he died about 1803 in Wilkes Co., Ga., leaving no apparent will.

One last but right may seem to be in contacting other members of the Jordan for my clues. Perhaps some could recall the name of John T.'s sisters and sisters--which would be a tremendous help. Others might recall surnames of persons related to the family, slaves, etc.--and you never know which way other Bibles went or who has an old trunk with letters, etc. If you know any older descendants, could you write them--or could you send me their names and addresses and I'll contact them, either by letter or telephone.

I have someone checking in Georgia (a professional) for records, but I feel we can find some anwwers or good leads among descendants. So many records are apparently missing and, should be go back to Burke County, we may really find a problem since those records burned. Lets hope we can find them elsewhere ! By the way, have you ever run into a Sylvester F. Jordan who married in 1836 in Hancock Co., Ga., to a Gunby. Am trying to find his parents.

I must stop now. Do let me hear soon and if you have any specific questions or want copies of anything particular, do let me know.

Sincerely,

Mildred S. Watkins
